Nil.

F. BELSTEAD, Secretary of Mines.
28th June, 1888.

The Hon. the Minister of Lands and Works.

General Manager's Office,
Launceston, 27th June, 1888.

MEMO.

IN reply to an Order of the House of Assembly, Number 12, there have not been any reductions recently in this Department.

The wording of the Order is somewhat vague, as no dates are given; but I think it will suffice to say that the increase in our Railway system has had a tendency to increase rather than reduce our staff.

FRED. BACK, General Manager.

Hon. Minister of Lands and Works.
