Laid upon the Table by the Colonial Secretary, and ordered by the House to be printed, May 16, 1877.

Launceston, 30th April, 1877.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward for your information a letter received by me from the Commissioners representing the Colony of Queensland at the New South Wales Intercolonial Exhibition, together with a copy of the schedule to which it refers: and I shall feel obliged if you will cause the letter to be acknowledged through your department in such terms as Government may consider desirable.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

THOS. C. JUST.

The Hon. the Colonial Secretary, Hobart Town.

(Copy.)

Exhibition Buildings, Sydney, 12th April, 1877.

DEAR SIR,

IN addition to our functions as Commissioners for Queensland at this Exhibition, we have been empowered by the National Agricultural and Industrial Association of Queensland to arrange for exhibits for the Intercolonial Exhibition to be held in Brisbane in August next.

The admirable illustrations in the Tasmanian court of Colonial industry and art, and of the resources of the soil of Tasmania both on and below its surface, induce us to request that you will make known in the proper quarters the fact of our Exhibition being about to be held, and intimate that the Association is very desirous to see Tasmania represented on the occasion.

The capacious building erected and used last year for the purpose of our first exhibition, which resulted in such remarkable success, will be greatly enlarged; and the arrangements for exhibiting machinery, stock, and other things unsuited to the interior of the main building will include improvements upon those which were used last year, and which gave satisfaction to exhibitors on that occasion.

We beg to enclose some copies of the Association's schedule for the Exhibition at which we are inviting the presence of Tasmania, and shall be glad to afford you any further information which you may desire.

We are, dear Sir,
Very faithfully yours,

LEWIS A. BERNAYS.
JOHN FENWICK.

THOMAS C. JUST, Esq., Commissioner for Tasmania.
