Subject: Submission to the Joint Select Committee on Future Gaming Markets

Dear Members of the Committee,

It is high time you stopped to consider the human cost of the availability of poker machines in our communities. I personally witnessed the cost living in a small town when they were introduced. Businesses shut down and families were destroyed. These machines offer false hope and prey on the poverty belt. They need to be put back in casinos where they belong. Please consider significantly reducing them, or moving them right out of the suburbs.

Yours sincerely, Caroline Amos
