

Primrose Sands Public Transport

Ms WHITE question to MINISTER for TRANSPORT

Constituents in the growing community of Primrose Sands have raised with me their frustration that there is no public transport service available for them to use. Residents in this community are seeking a commitment from your government that public transport services will be expanded to provide a reliable and regular bus service to help connect residents with work and education. When will your government expand bus services into Primrose Sands?