

Land Titles Office – Access

Mr GEORGE question to MINISTER for PARKS and HERITAGE

On behalf of Gemma King of Howrah, will the Government explain why it has chosen to restrict access to the Land Titles Office so that, in most cases, Tasmanians can only engage with it through a legal practitioner or conveyancer, effectively requiring taxpayers to pay privately to access a public service they already fund? And will it reverse this onerous provision?