TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT of the Inspector of Constabulary Forces of Municipalities of Tasmania for the Year ending 31st December, 1882.

Office of Inspector of Police, 13th July, 1883.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to furnish, for the information of His Excellency the Governor, my Annual Report upon the Municipal Police for 1882.

There was a slight increase in the total strength employed. The addition was made in the Launceston Force, and was warranted by the number of new streets and buildings requiring supervision.

There were fewer indictable offences reported in 1882 than in the previous year, and a smaller number of offences against the Police Act, but the cases of drunkenness had increased materially.

The general standard of efficiency of the Municipal Police was maintained during the year.

In the Country Municipalities readiness to observe the regulations has been generally exhibited, but in Launceston, and latterly in Hobart, attempts have been made to set them aside in favour of an independent line of action. This course, if unchecked, would lead to great complication and difficulty in the detection and arrest of criminals who had taken refuge in other Colonies.

It would be obviously impolitic to permit 21 Superintendents to correspond independently with heads of police departments in the other Colonies; yet if the privilege were conceded to one, it is difficult to know on what principle its general application could be restricted.

The usual Return of Indictable and other Offences is enclosed.

The total Strength of the Force on the 31st of December was 191, as follows:—

Superintendents .....	21
Sub-Inspectors.....	21
Acting Sub-Inspectors.....	6
Detectives.....	3
Sergeants.....	16
Constables.....	116
Specials.....	8
TOTAL.....	191

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

JOHN SWAN, Inspector of Police.

The Honorable the Chief Secretary.

Proceedings were taken against twenty publicans under "The Licensing Act." Convictions were obtained in seventeen cases, two were withdrawn, and one was dismissed.

Year.	Indictable Offences.			Offences determined Summarily.
	Number reported to Police.	Number apprehended.	Number Committed or summarily Convicted.	Drunkenness.		Offences against Police Act and Bye-laws.
1879 and 80 .....	197	154	93	Male. 131	Female. 120	Male. 573	Female. 256
1881.....	115	83	63	183	99	385	207
1882.....	81	73	55	291	170	510	279

The most remarkable features in the year's returns are the increased number of cases of drunkenness, and the small number of indictable offences reported to the Police.

With regard to the latter returns generally, I may point out that while in some places every offence verbally reported may be recorded, in others inquiry might be made, and if the reports appeared frivolous no further notice would be taken of them.

The proportion between offences reported and the number of arrests cannot therefore be taken as a certain index of police activity.

There has been a reduction of one Constable since my last report.

1881.....	45	28	21	82	43	30	7
1882.....	31	17	14	71	34	7	2

The general character of the Longford Police is very good, and the duties well performed. I very much regret, however, that the Council have not thought it advisable to increase the pay of the Superintendent. £125 per annum is an improper remuneration for the services rendered by that officer. The efficiency of a Police Force may be as much impaired by inadequate pay as by insufficient numbers.

I am still of opinion that this Force was of insufficient strength during the year. I think that more than one Constable should have been stationed on the Launceston side of Campbell Town, and that the Eastern Tier should not be unprotected.
