FRED^K. M. INNES, Colonial Treasurer.

Colonial Treasury, 23rd May, 1873.

Examined and certified to be correct,

E. J. MANLEY, Colonial Auditor.

Audit Office, 12th June, 1873.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to return herewith your Balance Sheets and Annual Statements of the Public Accounts for the year 1872, which have been carefully examined in this office, together with the Journals and Ledgers belonging to your Department.

In reference to these Accounts I beg to offer a few remarks:—

1. In dealing with the sums received as premiums on sale of Debentures and Treasury Bills, a different mode has been adopted under your direction from that which was pursued by your predecessor, who, during the period of his charge of the Colonial Treasury, introduced such receipts into the ordinary revenue of the year, whereas the amount so received in 1872 has been carried to a distinct account, under the division of special receipts, entitled "Reserve Fund, Redemption of Debentures."

As it is manifestly desirable that this difference of opinion between the late Treasurer and yourself should be authoritatively decided for the guidance both of the Treasury and this department, I would respectfully request that the point at issue may be brought under the notice of Parliament, with the view of obtaining a final decision upon the subject.

2. I would desire to call attention to the payments made to the Benevolent Society of Launceston.

The Estimates for 1872 provided two sums of £250 each for that institution, the one being a free grant which was duly paid by quarterly instalments, the other conditional that a like sum be raised by private subscriptions. The Managers of the Society failed, however, to collect more than £205 18s. 6d. from private persons, for which amount an equal sum was contributed from the Treasury in accordance with the terms of the Estimate; but in addition to this contribution a sum of £100 originally issued as an advance in March, 1872, was subsequently converted into a free grant, upon the understanding that a Supplementary Vote would be taken for the amount.

As therefore the special condition attached by Parliament to the original vote has been departed from, it appears to me that the matter should be noticed in this letter, in order that the particulars may be understood when the Supplementary Vote is submitted for consideration.

3. In the Balance Sheet, at page 24, will be seen an entry of Debentures for sale, £48,300. These Debentures were originally transmitted to the Consolidated Bank in London for the purpose of sale, but it was afterwards determined not to sell, but to leave them with the Bank in order to carry out the object contemplated by the 2nd Section of the Act, 31 Vict. No. 9, of exchanging these Debentures for old ones issued under the several Acts consolidated in this one, upon terms specified in the 2nd and 3rd Sections thereof. As the Debentures in question were remitted so far back as 1868, and as during all this time no operation has taken place in regard to them, I beg leave to submit for consideration whether this account might not now be closed by withdrawal of the Debentures from the hands of the Bankers in England.

4. Before concluding I beg to call attention to Sections 3 and 4 of my Report upon the Accounts of 1871, the former having reference to a sum of £15 4s. 10d. due from the estate of the late Mr. Thomas P. Ball, who some years ago was employed in the Gaol at Hobart Town; and the latter to an unsatisfied balance of £92 1s. 8d., being portion of a sum of £150 advanced to the Rev. T. Reiby in 1866, under a vote of Parliament for the services of a Catechist to the Islanders in Bass' Straits. I have not been informed that any progress has been made in either of these matters since I brought them under notice last year.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your very obedient Servant,

E. J. MANLEY, Colonial Auditor.

The Honorable the Colonial Treasurer.
