* There are no means at this Office of distinguishing between those transported to the Colony from those transported in the Colony.

J. REID, Superintendent Penal Establishments.
Launceston, 16th August, 1859.

IN the Nos. 650, 247, and 442, Free by Service, it should be stated under the head "Transported to the Colony" how many of that number were Imperial Convicts, i.e., Transported to the Colony.

19th August, 1859.

B. TRAVERS SOLLY.

As stated on the face of this Return, there are no means at this Office of distinguishing between those transported to the Colony, &c., no record having been kept here for that purpose; but an amended Return has been prepared herewith which shows the probable numbers of Prisoners, i.e., Imperial Convicts who were transported to the Colony; but the Superintendent does not vouch for the correctness of these numbers, as he had no positive data upon which he could act.

20th August, 1859.
