FRED^K. M. INNES, Colonial Treasurer.Colonial Treasury, 25th May, 1875.

Examined and certified to be correct.

W. LOVETT, Colonial Auditor.

Audit Office, 20th July, 1875.

SIR,

IN returning your Balance Sheets and Statements of Accounts (Consolidated Revenue) for the year 1874, certified in the usual manner, I have the honor to append the following observations:—

Revenue.—The Revenue proper for the year 1874 collected to 31st December, 1874, amounted to £315,600 11s. 7d.; the amount estimated as outstanding at that date for Contributions from Home Government, Mail Service, &c., being £12,324 8s. 2d., the total Revenue for the year would therefore amount to about £327,925, and shows a considerable increase as compared with the Revenues of the years 1872 and 1873: this will be readily understood by referring to the following figures:—

	1872.			1873.			1874.

Debt of the Colony.—The Debt of the Colony, per Balance Sheet, is stated at £1,521,400: this represents the actual amount of Debentures and Treasury Bills known to be outstanding on 31st December, 1874, and would include Debentures redeemed in London after 30th September, 1874, because the accounts from the Consolidated Bank had not been received at that date. These have now reached the Treasury, and £15,700 of Debentures due in 1874 had been paid off during the last quarter of the year, leaving Debentures and Treasury Bills issued and outstanding for £1,505,700 irrespective of those authorised but not issued. Including the latter the Debt would be as follows:—

Permanent Debt—

	£	s.	d.
Debentures issued -	1,433,900	0	0
Debentures authorised but not issued	72,300	0	0
	£1,506,200	0	0

Total Permanent Debt	£1,476,200	0	0

Treasury Bills redeemable from proceeds of Land Sales—Balance	51,000	0	0

Timber Licences.—I regret to find that no satisfactory explanation has been given by either of the Collectors of Timber Licences for Franklin and Richmond as to irregularities in the collection and returns of Revenue reported in my letter of the 6th of January last.

Non-collection of amounts due under special Acts.—I beg to draw your attention to the following cases of non-collection of amounts due under special Acts:—

1. Interest due upon loan to Tarleton Road Trust of £1000 under Act 35 Vict. No. 7, the amount due to 31st December, 1874, being £44 11s. 9d.
2. Interest due upon the amount of expenditure for the construction of the Emu Bay Jetty under the Local Public Works Act, the amount due to 31st December, 1874, being £88 5s. 9d.
3. Amount payable from the Funds of the Cemeteries Trust under Act 34 Vict. No. 29, for the purpose of forming a Sinking Fund for the redemption of Debentures raised under Act 34 Vict. No. 37, the amount due to 31st December, 1874, being £240.

Advance to the South Esk Bridge Trustees.—The amount advanced to the South Esk Bridge Trustees, referred to in my last Report, for which no provision has yet been made by Parliament, has increased to £511 10s. Your early attention to this matter is solicited.

* Partly estimated. † From August only. ‡ Amount to credit of Reserves on 31st December, £10,220 7s. 10d.
§ Amount to credit of Reserve on 31st December, £53 2s. 11d. || Paid off in January, 1875.

Unsatisfied Queries.—I have the pleasure to notice that very few Queries remain unanswered compared with the number at the date of my last Report; the following cases, however, have not yet been satisfied :—

1. Query No. 305, 14th August, 1873.—Re Interest during Construction of the Main Line of Railway payable to the Company.
2. Query No. 332, 8th June, 1874.—Re Salary and Emoluments of Mr. S. Scott.
3. Query No. 345, 10th October, 1874.—Re Advance to the Tarleton Road Trust, as to arrangements for repayment.
4. Query No. 348, 9th January, 1875.—Re Charge of £2 made by Mr. Brown, Mining Surveyor.
5. Letter 13th January, 1875.—Re Pension to John Forster, Esquire.

A difference of opinion having arisen with respect to Cases 2 and 5, I consider it my duty to append copy of the Correspondence relating thereto for the information of Parliament.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

The Honorable the Colonial Treasurer.

W. LOVETT, Colonial Auditor.

No. 2.

QUERY No. 332 of 8th June, 1874, on Voucher No. 79, Mr. Sandford Scott's receipt for Pension for month of May, 1874; amount £17 10s.: and No. 40, Salary Abstract, Queen's Asylum, for May, 1874; amount £79 5s. Paid 1st June.

Mr. Sandford Scott was pensioned on a salary of £350 per annum from 1st October, 1869, the amount granted to him being £210 per annum. His present salary and emoluments as Superintendent of the Queen's Asylum, according to an authority furnished to this Office dated 28th April, 1874, would amount to about £250, as shown below, amounting together to £460; viz.,—

Salary.....	£	s.	d.
	150	0	0
Value of Allowances at the usual rates—
Quarters.....	60	0	0
Fuel and light.....	23	10	0
Servant.....	16	16	0
	£250	6	0

According to the 10th Section of "The Superannuation Act," any Pensioner who is appointed to fill any office of emolument under the Crown shall not receive a larger amount in pension, salary, and emoluments combined than the sum on which he may have been pensioned, and the rule hitherto has been to deduct the excess from the pension in all cases when such excess has occurred. But no deduction appears to have been made in the amount of either pension or salary for the month of May in Mr. Scott's case.

W. LOVETT.

Answer or Explanation :—Mr. Sandford Scott's pension has been voted by Parliament at £210 per annum, and also his salary as Superintendent of the Queen's Asylum and the New Town Charitable Institution for Indigent Females at £150; these two items are therefore duly authorised by the Legislature, although combined they exceed by £10 the amount of the salary upon which he was pensioned. Mr. Scott's allowances, which are estimated at—

Quarters.....	£	s.	d.
	30	0	0
Fuel and light.....	20	0	0
	£65	0	0

are granted to him as a Bonus, and therefore do not enter into the calculation as regards the question raised by the Auditor. The circumstances under which Mr. Scott was re-employed are exceptional. He is over 60 years of age and the Government could not compel him to re-enter the service, but availed themselves of his willingness to accept employment in order to secure a competent Superintendent for the institutions above mentioned at a rate of remuneration far below what any gentleman similarly situated would have accepted.

B. TRAVERS SOLLY.
15th May, 1875.

Further remarks in reply :—I do not think the statement of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary that the allowances of the Superintendent of the Queen's Asylum are granted as a Bonus alters the case, for a Bonus certainly would form part of the emoluments of office, and therefore a considerable sum has been granted contrary to the provisions of the Superannuation Act. When the vote for the salary of the Superintendent of the Queen's Asylum was taken, it did not appear that Parliament fully understood the arrangement, more especially with regard to the point introduced in this Query.

I did not intend to question the desirability of the arrangement as a matter of economy or in other respects beyond the bare fact stated, and would consider the Query satisfied if the Executive will engage to explain the case to Parliament when the vote for the Queen's Asylum for 1876 is taken.

No. 5.

Audit Office, 13th January, 1875.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to acknowledge through the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer the receipt of your Memo. of the 31st December, 1874, intimating that the Administrator of the Government in Council had been pleased to approve of a Retiring Allowance being granted to John Forster, Esquire, Inspector of Police, at the rate of Four hundred pounds per annum, to take effect from the 1st instant.

It has hitherto been the rule in all cases of granting Retiring Allowances to forward the pension papers to this Office for examination before submitting the case for the approval of the Governor in Council, but in the above no papers have been received.

Will you therefore be so good as to inform me why the rule has been departed from?

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

W. LOVETT.

The Honorable the Colonial Secretary.

The Assistant Colonial Secretary presents his compliments to Mr. Forster and will feel obliged if he will fill up and return to this Office, at his earliest convenience, the enclosed Pension Paper.

B. TRAVERS SOLLY.

Colonial Secretary's Office, 14th January, 1875.

FILLED up and returned as requested.

J. FORSTER.

14. 1. 75.

THE usual form of Pension Paper is herewith forwarded.

B. TRAVERS SOLLY.

19th January.

The Colonial Auditor.

BEFORE entering into the examination of this Pension Paper, I beg to point out that no reply has been given to the question raised in the within letter.

W. LOVETT.

Audit Office, 26th May, 1875.

The Honorable the Colonial Secretary.

As the Cabinet had decided to recommend the Governor in Council to grant Mr. Forster the maximum amount of pension authorised by the Superannuation Act; viz.—£400 per annum, there was no necessity for troubling the Auditor to check the calculation.

T. D. CHAPMAN.

The Colonial Auditor.

IN returning this Pension Paper the Auditor begs to remark that he is under the impression that his responsibility extends beyond the mere calculation of the amount set down in a pension paper, and that he is bound to notice whether any proposed granting of pension or retiring allowance is in accordance with law or regulation; the Minute of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, however, seems to infer differently, and the Auditor would be glad to be put right in the matter.

W. LOVETT.

8th June, 1875.

The Honorable the Colonial Secretary.
