Notices of Motion

91 Ms O'Connor to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that on 30 November 2021, the independent review into the Public Trustee was published.
- (2) Acknowledges the report found that the Trustee has failed to correctly meet its duties for 26 years, and that, as a result, Tasmanians on guardianship orders have had their rights and their assets stripped away from them.
- (3) Recognises the independent review pointed to the Trustee selling or disposing of personal property without consultation.
- (4) Agrees any and all victims of the Trustee should be entitled to compensation, and that appropriate mechanisms for this should be developed and made available as soon as possible.
- (5) Calls on the Attorney General, Hon. Elise Archer MP, not to delay ensuring justice for those Tasmanians who have been harmed by the operation of the Public Trustee. (22 March 2022)

92 Dr Broad to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges:—
 - (a) the serious financial pressure being placed on Tasmanian households by the rising cost of living;
 - (b) that the most acute pressure is currently being felt with basic, non-discretionary expenses such as fuel, housing and utility bills;
 - (c) wages are not keeping pace with the cost of living; and
 - (d) that this pressure is felt equally by business owners.
- (2) Notes:—
 - (a) the National Rental Affordability Index shows Hobart is the least affordable capital city in the country for renters, while house price increases of nearly 30% in the past year have put the dream of home ownership out of reach for many Tasmanians;
 - (b) a report by ANZ (the Australia and New Zealand Banking Group) has shown consumer confidence in Tasmania is now negative and inflation expectations are the worst in ten years;
 - (c) two recent surveys by NAB (National Australia Bank) and Roy Morgan Research have shown Tasmania has the lowest business confidence in the country;
 - (d) Business investment in Tasmania fell nearly 10% in the December 2021 quarter, nearly three times more than in any other State;
 - (e) Tasmania's domestic economy shrank by 1.5% in the December 2021 quarter; and

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (f) Tasmania's population has declined for the last two quarters, with record numbers of Tasmanians moving interstate.
- (3) Calls on the Premier, Hon. Peter Gutwein MP, to fulfil his promise to implement legislation to reduce petrol prices, scrap the bin tax and tell TasWater to amend its plan to significantly increase water bills. (22 March 2022)

94 The Minister for Resources to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that Monday, 21 March 2022, was the International Day of Forests.
- (2) Acknowledges that this Day was proclaimed by the United Nations in 2012 to celebrate and raise awareness of the importance of all types of forest and that sustainable forest management not only contributes to the prosperity and wellbeing of current and future generations, but can assist in addressing climate change.
- (3) Further notes that:—
 - (a) Tasmania's sustainable forestry industry is well-regulated, balanced and overseen by the independent Forest Practices Authority; and
 - (b) whenever Tasmania's native forests are harvested, they are regrown, ensuring the sector's long-term viability and underpinning the over 5,700 direct and indirect jobs supported through the industry.
- (4) Supports the August 2019 IPCC Special Report on 'Climate Change and Land', which says: "Sustainable forest management can maintain or enhance forest carbon stocks, and can maintain forest carbon sinks, including by transferring carbon to wood products."
- (5) Further notes:—
 - (a) that maintaining a native forest estate is a key commitment of Tasmania's Regional Forest Agreement (RFA) and that 58 per cent of Tasmania's native forests are protected in reserves with over one million hectares—or over 80 per cent—of old growth forest protected; and
 - (b) our approach maintains our native forest estate and provides environmental, economic and social benefits, for generations to come. (22 March 2022)

95 Ms White to move—That the House:—

- (1) Condemns the conduct of Government Members who groaned when a question was asked on behalf of a victim survivor in this Parliament.
- (2) Acknowledges the deep hurt this appalling behaviour caused victim survivors.
- (3) Notes that since that display of appalling behaviour there are still Government Members who have failed to apologise.
- (4) Calls on all remaining Government Members who are yet to apologise to do so without delay. (22 March 2022)

96 Mr O'Byrne to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that:—
 - (a) statewide Ambulance response times in Tasmania are the slowest in the country, with the 90th percentile average response times surpassing 33 minutes;
 - (b) patient experience survey data reveals that the level of trust that Tasmanian patients have in our paramedics is the second-highest in the nation; and
 - (c) patient experience survey data reveals Tasmanian ambulance patients rate the level of care they received by our paramedics higher than patients in any other state or territory.
- (2) Acknowledges the difficulties faced daily by our paramedics and front-line health professionals due to the acute pressures on Tasmania's health system.
- (3) Commends the extraordinary work of our paramedics right across Tasmania who continually impress the community with their commitment and professionalism, despite the extreme pressure and stress they are placed under.
- (4) Calls upon the Government to set a target to reduce ambulance response times to the national average by the end of 2022. (23 March 2022)

97 The Leader of the House to move—That the House notes that unless otherwise ordered, for the remainder of this Session:—
