

Launceston General Hospital - Parking Options

Mr WOOD question to MINISTER for HEALTH

In recent days, a constituent of mine has asked me if there are any plans to increase the parking options available at the Launceston General Hospital. I know that concept designs were released a few months back. I am wondering if the Health minister can please provide an update on the latest developments to progress this.