

Dodges Ferry Primary School – Redevelopment

Mr SHELTON question to MINISTER for EDUCATION

We know that the Dodges Ferry Primary School will undergo a major redevelopment to provide additional contemporary learning environments, associated support spaces, and amenities. Students are looking forward to the changes coming to fruition. I note your recent announcement of the architect's appointment. When can the students at Dodges Ferry Primary School expect to see works commence?