INSPECTOR OF POLICE, TERRITORIAL.

REPORT FOR YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1876.

Laid upon the Table by the Colonial Secretary, and ordered by the House to be printed, September 12, 1876.

NINTH ANNUAL REPORT of the Inspector of Police on the State of the Territorial Police of Tasmania, for the Year ending 30th June, 1876.

Office of Inspector of Police, 23rd August, 1876.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to submit my Report upon the state of the Territorial Police for the year ending 30th June, 1876.

The total strength is now 83 officers and men, of the average age of 37 years.

Chief District Constables	7
1st Class District Constables	1
2nd Class District Constables.....	13
Acting 2nd Class District Constables.....	5
Sergeants	2
Acting Sergeants.....	3
Constables	50
Specials.....	2

I have reason to commend very highly the manner in which the duties of the Officers in charge of Districts have been performed, as well as the conduct of the men generally.

Changes have occurred through the retirement of three Chief District Constables; two have received pensions, and the third has been appointed Stipendiary Magistrate. The vacancies thus caused were filled by promotion.

It is difficult to make any just comparison between the number of the Territorial Police employed in Tasmania and in the other Colonies, basing the calculation upon population. A great amount of work is performed by our Force which is out of the range of ordinary Police duty.

The Force has been recruited during the year by the appointment of men younger than those usually selected. The majority of these are conducting themselves entirely to my satisfaction, and are likely to become very creditable additions to the Constabulary. A few, however, have either been unable to settle to the life, or have been induced to leave by the high wages now obtainable in other pursuits.

I am of opinion that it would be advantageous to establish a Reserve Force, unattached to any particular District, but available for general service. This body might be composed of two Detectives and a few Constables of recent appointment. The latter would be absorbed into the general Police as they acquired a knowledge of their duties. If these men could be associated in barracks at the commencement of their service, a feeling of interest in their work and of esprit de corps would be engendered.

The increasing population of the Islands in Bass's Straits has not hitherto been afforded Police protection. I have recommended the purchase of a boat, suitable for this service, to be stationed at George Town.

Indictable offences have slightly decreased during the year; but there has been a marked increase in the number of cases of drunkenness.

Sheep-stealing appears to have been systematically carried on. This offence can only be effectually checked by the employment of a Detective Force, some of the Members of which would not be generally known throughout the country.

The following table shows the state of Crime as compared with the two preceding years :—

YEAR.	INDICTABLE OFFENCES.			OFFENCES DETERMINED SUMMARILY.
	Number reported to Police.	Number apprehended.	Number Committed or summarily Convicted.	Drunkenness and Disorderly Conduct.		Offences against Police Act.
				Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.
1873 and 4	205	106	77	105	52	93	26
1874 and 5	208	124	82	166	49	92	17
1875 and 6	202	121	97	215	62	162	32

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

JOHN SWAN, Inspector of Police.

The Hon. the Colonial Secretary.
