budgets, incorporating a gender perspective at all levels of the budgetary process and restructuring revenues and expenditures in order to promote gender equality”;

(b) in 2019, the International Monetary Fund (IMF) stated, “Gender equity, achieved through gender responsive budgeting, is more than a human rights issue. It’s an economic imperative”; and

(c) Gender Equity Victoria defines the three key areas of gender budgeting as:

- (i) gender-informed resource allocation whereby individual policy decisions and/or funding allocations take into account the impact of the decision on gender equality;
- (ii) analysis at the sectorial level of the impact of decisions on gender equality within that sector or industry; and

- (c) Victoria has produced a Gender Budget Impact Statement as part of its State Budget Papers since its introduction in the 1986-87 Budget year; and
