Notices of Motion

149 Ms O'Connor to move—That the House:—

- (1) Understands we are at a time in history where people must find ways to work together to tackle the serious challenges humanity faces.
- (2) Acknowledges that the Arctic and Amazon is on fire, the first glacier has melted in Iceland and we are in a climate emergency.
- (3) Recognises international political, trade and market instability.
- (4) Further understands Tasmania is not immune from the issues faced globally – the rapidly changing climate, international security and trade tensions, the rise of authoritarianism and the erosion of democracy.
- (5) Further acknowledges that in times of crisis people need real leadership.
- (6) Calls on all parties in the Tasmanian Parliament to work together to combat and prepare our community for the climate emergency and the geopolitical upheaval Tasmania is facing. (3 September 2019)

150 Ms O'Connor to move—That the House:—

- (1) Understands that in a time of climate emergency and growing social inequality, political parties need to work together.
- (2) Recognises the role of Opposition parties is to hold the Government to account.
- (3) Further understands it's also the role of Opposition parties to present an alternative vision.
- (4) Notes while they don't deliver an Alternative Budget as do the Greens, we now know that Labor supports:—
  - (a) most damningly for current and future generations, inaction on the climate emergency;
  - (b) Poker machines in communities until 2043;
  - (c) failing to protect young people at festivals from lethal drugs;
  - (d) the privatisation of public protected areas;
  - (e) shady dealings with developers in the office of the Coordinator General;
  - (f) soaring levels of foreign ownership of agricultural lands and housing;
  - (g) a cable car on kunanyi;
  - (h) the Cambria Green mega development near Swansea;
  - (i) the logging of high conservation value, carbon banking forests; and
  - (j) poorly regulated, unsustainable fish farm expansion.
- (5) Acknowledges that leadership across the community is required to ensure future wellbeing and prosperity for Tasmanians and that at a time when the Leader of the Opposition, Hon. Rebecca White MP could make a real, positive difference, she is refusing to do so.
- (6) Accepts that Tasmanian Labor under Hon. Rebecca White has become Liberal-lite.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (7) Recognises that even if they don't support the Greens, Tasmanians know where we stand.
- (8) Further acknowledges with regret that the Greens are the only party that takes the climate emergency seriously, and the two Greens MPs remain the real opposition in Tasmania's Parliament. (3 September 2019)

152 The Minister for Building and Construction to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises that the annual NECA Tasmania Excellence and Apprentice Awards were held on 17 August 2019.
- (2) Acknowledges that the awards are the electrical and communication subcontractors' highest accolade and the industry's most prestigious awards program in Tasmania.
- (3) Congratulates all entrants and finalists across all categories including technology innovation, management, workplace health and safety, and commercial expertise.
- (4) Further congratulates the award recipients, namely:—
  - (a) Nelson South Electrical Contractor for the Energy Efficiency & Environment Project category;
  - (b) RBD Electrical for both the Industrial Small Project and Industrial Medium Project categories;
  - (c) Stowe Australia for the Commercial Small Project category; and
  - (d) Degree C for the Commercial Medium Project category.
- (5) Further recognises the outstanding performance and commitment to industry by the 2019 Apprentice Award winners, which were awarded to Marek Porter and Alexander Findlater.
- (6) Further congratulates all award winners, who will go on to represent the best that Tasmania has to offer in the National Industry Excellence and Apprentice Awards to be held in Brisbane in November. (3 September 2019)

153 The Minister for Building and Construction to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises that the Master Builders Awards for Excellence was held on 17 August 2019 in Hobart.
- (2) Acknowledges these awards celebrate Tasmania's builders who demonstrate excellence, professionalism and an utmost commitment to quality workmanship in the projects being constructed around the State.
- (3) Notes that there were 17 award category winners, highlighting the high level of achievement by individuals and organisations across Tasmania.
- (4) Further notes the special category winners, including:—
  - (a) Residential Master Builder of the Year – AJR Construction;
  - (b) Commercial Master Builder of the Year and Specialist Contractor of the Year – Fairbrother Construction;
  - (c) Young Builder of the Year – Matthew Barwick, Barwick Developments;
  - (d) Tasmanian Apprentice of the Year – Adam Gelston, Fairbrother Construction; and
  - (e) Hands On Skill Apprentice of the Year – Matthew Bates, Faulker Building.
- (5) Commends every entrant and finalist, who exemplify the outstanding craftsmanship and commitment to building excellence that exists throughout Tasmania;
- (6) Further congratulates all award winners, who will go on to showcase Tasmania's best in the National Excellence in Building and Construction Awards to be held at Uluru in the Northern Territory later in 2019. (3 September 2019)

154 The Attorney-General to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises the significant body of work contained in the 409 recommendations of the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse.
- (2) Further recognises the significant number of reforms that the Hodgman Liberal Government has already pursued in response to those recommendations.
- (3) Notes the importance of these reforms to ensuring that the failings of the past are not repeated in the future.
- (4) Commends the survivors and their advocates for continuing to lobby all Australian governments so as to ensure the momentum for change caused by the Royal Commission is not lost. (3 September 2019)

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- 155 The Minister for the Arts to move—That the House:—
- (1) Recognises that there are a record 198 entries for the 2019 Premier's Literary Prizes which is a clear demonstration of the talent and enthusiasm across Tasmania's literary sector.
  - (2) Notes that 2019 judges include esteemed writers, academics and industry professionals, including Professor Lucy Frost, Jane Rawson, Dr Robert Clark, Dr Natasha Cica, Rohan Wilson and Dr Graeme Miles.
  - (3) Further notes that once the judging is complete, all of the books will be distributed to Tasmania's prison libraries.
  - (4) Acknowledges that the Premier's Literary Prizes are presented by the Tasmanian Government and also supported by the University of Tasmania and private philanthropists. (3 September 2019)
- 157 Mrs Rylah to move—That the House:—
- (1) Acknowledges that under the Hodgman Liberal Government, the Australian Bureau of Statistic's labour force data for July 2019 shows 13,000 jobs have been created since we came to office.
  - (2) Notes that these results follow recent data confirming that our economy is the strongest growing in the nation.
  - (3) Further acknowledges that the NAB Monthly Business Survey results, for the seventh month in a row, found that Tasmania's business conditions are the best in the nation, three times better than the national result in trend terms.
  - (4) Recognises the latest Sensis Business Index also found that Tasmania's businesses are the most confident in the nation and the Deloitte Access Economics analysis revealed Tasmania has the best business conditions in the nation.
  - (5) Further acknowledge that Tasmanian small businesses currently employ more than 110,000 people across the State and are the powerhouse of our economy.
  - (6) Congratulates the Hodgman Liberal Government on such strong results and its commitment to continue to grow the economy and create jobs by supporting businesses to develop a higher skilled workforce; cut red tape and unlock investment opportunities in Tasmania. (3 September 2019)
- 158 Mrs Rylah to move—That the House:—
- (1) Acknowledges that the Hodgman Liberal Government saved the Mersey Community Hospital and that it was the Labor Party that wanted to shut it down, after selling the Mersey Hospital to the Federal Government for $1.
  - (2) Notes that it was the Labor Party that left the neurology services in the North West in limbo for three years.
  - (3) Recognises that it was the Labor Party that did not commit to one more doctor in the North West or promise a single extra paramedic for the coast and, that it was under Labor, that Mersey funding was also dishonestly taken from the hospital and spent in the South.
  - (4) Further acknowledges that the Hodgman majority Government has invested in a life-saving helipad at the site and continues to invest a record $83.7 million into the hospital in 2019-20, which includes a new 12 bed rehabilitation ward.
  - (5) Further notes that it is the Hodgman Liberal Government that has a strong record in funding for health, whereas Labor can't produce an alternative budget, they have no policies, they stand for nothing and now they are trying to con North West Coasters into believing they finally care.
  - (6) Congratulates the Minister for Health, Hon. Sarah Courtney MP and the Minister for Mental Health and Wellbeing, Hon. Jeremy Rockliff MP with the full backing of this Government, working closely to ensure every aspect of health, including primary and prevention, community and acute, is performing at its very best. (3 September 2019)
- 159 Mrs Rylah to move—That the House:—
- (1) Acknowledges that the Hodgman Liberal Government is delivering on our commitment to improve education results in Tasmania.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (2) Notes that approximately 25,000 Tasmanian students in years 3,5,7 and 9 from all Government, Catholic and the vast majority of independent schools completed the 2019 NAPLAN tests.
- (3) Recognises that Tasmania's 2019 preliminary NAPLAN results show that years 3 and 9 writing are seeing improvements from 2018 and, along with reading, are one of our strongest domains.
- (4) Further notes that while the results are overall encouraging, they also show that numeracy and spelling remain an area for future focus.
- (5) Further acknowledges that this Government has invested significantly in literacy and numeracy initiatives, including the recently launched 'Literacy Framework and Plan for Action', and the Government's commitment to providing access to a Literacy Coach for every Tasmanian Government School, work is also now underway to develop a Numeracy Framework.
- (6) Congratulates the Hodgman Liberal Government on its commitment to improving educational outcomes in Tasmania by our record $7.1 billion investment in education. (3 September 2019)

160 The Minister for Veterans' Affairs to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises that Legacy Week is being held from 1 September to 7 September 2019.
- (2) Notes Legacy Week, first held in 1942, is the annual national appeal of Legacy Australia, an iconic national charity providing services to Australian families suffering after the incapacitation or death of a spouse or parent, during or after their Defence Force service.
- (3) Further notes that funds raised during Legacy Week go to helping Legacy care for around 60,000 Australians, including 859 widows and widowers and 19 children in southern Tasmania and 1,159 widows and widowers and five children across northern Tasmania.
- (4) Further notes that funds raised assist Legacy in providing essential services including counselling, special housing, medical, advocacy and social support to Australian families and also help assist the education of the children of our deceased veterans through contributions to school fees and resources and the hosting of recreational activities to grow their self-confidence.
- (5) Acknowledges that Legacy Australia grew out of the Remembrance Club, formed in Hobart in 1923 by one of the nation's foremost First World War heroes, Tasmanian Major-General Sir John Gellibrand KCB DSO and Bar—a fact that Tasmanians can be particularly proud of.
- (6) Congratulates the staff, Legatees and volunteers of Legacy—including the President of Legacy (Hobart), Mr Alec Young, Friends of Hobart Legacy and the President of Legacy (Launceston), Mr Russell Hogarth—for their tireless efforts in supporting the families of our incapacitated and deceased veterans. (3 September 2019)

161 The Minister for Resources to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that Tasmania's forest industry is continuing to achieve accolades and recognition for the premium products sourced from our production forests.
- (2) Further notes Hydrowood has recently been recognised for their premium Tasmanian timber products at the Australasian Timber Flooring Association (ATFA) Awards for excellence last week.
- (3) Congratulates Hydrowood for taking out three awards at this event, including the significant prize of "Overall Winner – Floor of the Year Award".
- (4) Further notes that this award winning floor was also showcased on Grand Designs Australia, providing significant positive exposure to the quality and premium timber products available here in Tasmania.
- (5) Acknowledges that the Tasmania's world class forest practices system and reserve estate supports this renewable and sustainable industry to achieve global recognition and drive demand for our valuable wood products.
- (6) Supports the Hodgman Majority Liberal Government's positive Strategic Growth Plan for Tasmania Forests, Fine Timber and Wood Fibre. (3 September 2019)

162 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (1) Notes that 3 September 2019, is Australian National Flag Day, the annual day specifically dedicated to celebrating our national flag.
- (2) Further notes that Australian National Flag Day was officially established in 1996 by the proclamation of the former Governor-General Sir William Deane and celebrates the first time the flag was flown on 3 September 1901 over the dome of the Exhibition Building in Melbourne when then Prime Minister Edmund Barton announced the winners of a competition to design a flag for Australia.
- (3) Acknowledges the Australian National Flag as Australia's foremost national symbol and a unifying and powerful expression of Australian identity.
- (4) Further notes that Australian National Flag Day provides all Australians with an opportunity to reflect with pride and gratitude upon the achievements and qualities of this great nation since Federation.
- (5) Further acknowledges the sterling work of the Australian National Flag Association in promoting and protecting our national symbol, whose work locally is led by Reg Watson.
- (6) Congratulates all individuals, community organisations, local authorities, businesses and schools across Tasmania that celebrated Australian National Flag Day by conducting flag-raising ceremonies and by flying or displaying the National Flag. (3 September 2019)

163 Ms O'Connor to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges with immense concern that the Arctic is on fire, the first glacier has melted in Iceland and we are in a climate emergency.
- (2) Understands that the Amazon rainforest is burning as a result of illegal land clearing, primarily for beef production.
- (3) Recognises that the Amazon, Arctic and forests around the planet are in large part, the lungs of the earth,
- (4) Accepts the 8 August 2019 report from the International Panel on Climate Change, that notes the critical part forests play in mitigating emissions and storing carbon
- (5) Further understands that business as usual is not an option for current and future generations, and that all jurisdictions and communities have an obligation to make significant changes in the unfolding climate emergency.
- (6) Celebrates the 20 African countries that have joined together to plant a giant wall of trees that will run 7000 kilometres across their continent to stop the spread of the Sahara Desert.
- (7) Further accepts the protection of existing carbon-sequestering forests are critical to a safe climate.
- (8) Calls on the Liberal and Labor Parties to heed the science and recognise their moral responsibility to support the ongoing protection of the 356,000ha of high conservation value, carbon banking forest set aside under the Tasmanian Forest Agreement. (4 September 2019)

164 The Minister for Housing to move—That the House:—

- (1) Supports the Huntingfield Housing Land Supply Order made under section 4 of 'the Housing Land Supply Act 2018'.
- (2) Acknowledges that Tasmania's Affordable Housing Strategy, which includes the critical release of more land, is responding to the current challenges in the housing market by boosting supply across the housing spectrum.
- (3) Acknowledges that the Affordable Housing Action Plan 2 and the additional investment in funding is another positive step towards continuing this momentum.
- (4) Supports the Tasmanian Government's $1.6 billion investment in infrastructure of roads and bridges, including $30.8 million over four years for congestion busting projects in Greater Hobart. (4 September 2019)

165 The Minister for Veterans' Affairs to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges 3 September 2019, was Merchant Navy Day, which is commemorated on the anniversary of the sinking of the first British merchant vessel during World War II, and in 2019 it falls on the 80th anniversary of when Australia entered the Second World War.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (2) Further acknowledges that the Merchant Navy Day illustrates the important contribution mariners have made to Australia's economic growth and prosperity in peace time and in war.
- (3) Notes that the Merchant Navy of the whole British Empire, which included the Australian Merchant Fleet, suffered proportionately the highest casualties of any of the allied services in the Second World War.
- (4) Further notes that thirty thousand two hundred and forty eight British Empire merchant seamen who served at sea under the red ensign lost their lives doing so with the Australian Department of Veterans Affairs nominal roll recording 3,500 Australian merchant seamen serving in World War II in Australian registered ships.
- (5) Recognises the Tasmanian Seafarers' Memorial, located in Triabunna, on Tasmania's East Coast, which honours the lives of all Tasmanian seafarers who lost their lives at sea, including those who served in the armed forces. (4 September 2019)

Orders of the Day

1 Acts Enumeration Amendment Bill (No. 1 of 2019): Second reading. (The Premier)

2 Animal Welfare Reformation Bill (No. 38 of 2018): Second reading. (Ms O'Connor)

3 Right to Information Amendment Bill 2019 (No. 8 of 2019): Second reading. (Ms Haddad)

4 Disposal of Uncollected Goods Bill 2019 (No. 16 of 2019): Second reading. (Minister for Building and Construction)

5 2019 Federal Election: Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Wednesday, 22 May 2019 by Mr Shelton—That the House:—

- (1) Congratulates Prime Minister Hon. Scott Morrison MP and the Federal Liberal Party for the outstanding result in the Australian Federal election held on 18 May 2019.
- (2) Further congratulates, subject to final confirmation, the election of Tasmanian Federal Liberal representatives in both the Senate and the House of Representatives.
- (3) Notes the strong relationship between the Hodgman and Morrison Governments, working together to deliver a stronger economy, real investment in infrastructure and better health and education services for all Tasmanians. (Next Speaker: Dr Woodruff)

6 Roads and Jetties Amendment (Validation) Bill 2019 (No. 25 of 2019): Second Reading (Minister for Infrastructure)

7 Roads and Jetties Amendment (Works in Highways) Bill 2019 (No. 26 of 2019): Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Tuesday, 3 September 2019 by the Minister for Infrastructure – That the Bill be now read the Second time. (Next Speaker: Minister for Infrastructure)

8 Magistrates Court (Criminal and General Division) Bill 2019 (No. 27 of 2019): Second reading. (Minister for Justice)

9 Magistrates Court (Criminal and General Division) (Consequential Amendments) Bill 2019 (No. 28 of 2019): Second reading. (Minister for Justice)

10 Restraint Orders Bill 2019 (No. 29 of 2019): Second reading. (Minister for Justice)

11 Battery of the Nation: Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Wednesday, 31 July 2019 by Mrs Rylah—That the House:—

- (1) Notes Tasmania has the renewable and dispatchable energy the rest of the nation needs, and the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to using this advantage to ensure all Tasmanians benefit.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (2) Records this Government's continuing drive for the development of the Battery of the Nation and the crucial second interconnector, the Marinus project, which have the potential to inject up to $5 billion into the Tasmanian economy and deliver 2,000 jobs, particularly into regional areas.
- (3) Further notes that the development stage of the first phase of the Battery of the Nation carries the commitment of the Federal Government through the Federal Underwriting New Generation Investment program.
- (4) Further notes that support by both the Hodgman Liberal Government and the Federal Government, gives UPC Renewables and AC energy, more confidence to develop their Robbins Island and Jims Plain wind and solar parks.
- (5) Recognises that Tasmania has a world-class wind resource complemented by our pumped hydro that means there will always be some electricity available for export when the mainland is experiencing low wind or high demand.
- (6) Acknowledges that the Australian Government clearly recognises the importance of Tasmania's energy solutions and our status as the leading energy state.
- (7) Commends the Hodgman Liberal Government for its strong commitment to making use of the natural resources available to the State while at the same time ensuring all Tasmanians will have access to low cost, reliable and clean energy in their homes and businesses. (Mrs Rylah)

To which the following amendment has been proposed by Dr Woodruff, by leaving out all words after "That the House:-" and inserting instead:

- “(1) Notes that the Liberals repeatedly talk about the Marinus project and use it as a political wedge, particularly during election periods, despite the fact that they have not put forward a financing proposal or a position on who should finance the multi-billion project.
- (2) Agrees that the project could cost in excess of current total Public Non-Financial Corporations Sector debt, and feasibility studies and prominent economists such as Saul Eslake have raised serious concerns about the viability of the project, which have not been addressed by the State Government.
- (3) Notes that the Liberals passed legislation to set wholesale electricity prices at a rate higher than projected, leading to energy bills decreasing by less than they would otherwise have.
- (4) Notes with alarm that the Liberal Government continues to allow Entura to engage in profiteering from immoral projects overseas such as the Karuma hydro power project Uganda, which has been linked to killings and other human rights violations.
- (5) Condemns the Liberal Government for their lack of honesty, ethics or plan in their handling of the Energy portfolio.” (Next Speaker: Minister for Energy)

12 Minimum Mandatory Sentences: Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Wednesday, 7 August 2019 by Mr Tucker—That the House:—

- (1) Welcomes the Federal Labor party's recent sensible backflip on minimum mandatory sentences for crimes relating to child abuse.
- (2) Acknowledges the Tasmanian Labor Party is now out of step with its Federal Labor colleagues.
- (3) Supports the introduction of minimum mandatory sentences for serious sexual offences against children. (Next Speaker: The Attorney-General)

13 Housing and Homelessness: Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Thursday, 8 August 2019 by the Minister for Housing—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges the dedicated work that is being done every day in the community and housing sectors to support Tasmanians experiencing homelessness or who are at risk of homelessness.
- (2) Further acknowledges that homelessness is often linked to other challenges such as mental illness, and the Tasmanian Government is focusing on the integration of mental health services to provide more holistic support and greater independence for clients.
- (3) Further acknowledges that Tasmania's Affordable Housing Strategy is responding to the current challenges in the housing market by boosting supply across a spectrum of needs.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (4) Further acknowledges that the Affordable Housing Action Plan Stage 2 and the additional investment in funding is another positive step towards continuing this momentum.
- (5) Recognises that all levels of government have a role to play in addressing the supply and demand in our housing market.
- (6) Call on all Members to work together to put the needs of Tasmanians above political point scoring. (Next Speaker: Minister for Housing)

14 Public Works Committee Amendment Bill 2019 (No. 32 of 2019): Second reading. (The Treasurer)

15 Legal Profession Amendment (Validation) Bill 2019 (No. 34 of 2019): Second reading. (Minister for Justice)
