

Launceston - Electric Buses Usage

Ms BROWN question to MINISTER for TRANSPORT

Several of my constituents who are deeply concerned about climate change and emissions reduction have heard that the electric buses in Launceston are currently sitting idle at the depot with no indication of when they will be fixed. Minister, is this true? How long have they been idle and when will they be fixed?