3. Principal Act

In this Act, the *Sentencing Act 1997 is referred to as the Principal Act.

4. Section 11BB inserted

After section 11BA of the Principal Act, the following section is inserted in Part 2:

11BB. Certain actions of offenders to be taken into account when sentencing offenders

(1) In this section –

electronically publish, in relation to a statement, image or video, includes a broadcast or transmission of the statement, image or video –

(a) by electronic or digital means; and

(b) regardless of whether the broadcast or transmission was available to all members of the public or selected persons.

(2) In determining a sentence for an offence in accordance with this Act, a court is to take into account, as an aggravating circumstance, that –

(a) the offender has –

- (i) electronically published one or more statements, images or videos in respect of the offence or a victim of the offence; or
- (ii) caused the electronic publication of any such statement, image or video; and

(b) a reasonable person would consider that –

- (i) the material, or the dissemination of the material, is likely to humiliate, intimidate or victimise a victim of the offence; or
- (ii) the electronic publication of the statement, image or video was for one or more of the following purposes:
 - (A) increasing the reputation or notoriety of the offender;
 - (B) boasting about the commission of the offence;
