6 Mr Gaffney to ask the Honourable the Leader of the Government —

The Final Report of the Joint Select Committee on Future Gaming Markets was tabled in the Legislative Council on Thursday 28 September 2017. Since that time, a written response to the Report addressing the full set of findings and recommendations has not been received.

Given that the Government moved for the establishment of the inquiry, and that the accepted conventional practice is for a response to be provided, would the Leader please confirm when a detailed written response to the Committee's report will be tabled in the Legislative Council.

(asked 21.07.18)

ORDERS OF THE DAY

- 1 Metro Tasmania Amendment Bill 2018 (No. 14): Third reading.
- 2 Threatened Species Protection Amendment Bill 2018 (No. 8): Third reading.
- 3 Natural Resource Management Amendment Bill 2018 (No. 7): Second reading.
- 4 Partition Bill 2018 (No. 2): Second reading.

NOTICES OF MOTION

- 1 Mr Dean to move — That the Report of the Integrity Commission No. 4 of 2017: An investigation into allegations of misconduct in the Fox Free Taskforce and Fox Eradication Program, be considered and noted.
- 2 Ms Forrest to move — That this House notes:
 - (1) The gender pay gap remains as a major impediment to gender equality.
 - (2) The gender pay gap negatively impacts on the well-being of women, particularly the financial and social wellbeing, from the commencement of employment to well beyond retirement.

- (3) Progress made in gender equality and equity has contributed to making the world a better place across all well-being measures and it is critically important to our future that we all do much more to address and eliminate the gender pay gap.
 - (4) The gender pay gap has narrowed over time but still exists.
 - (5) The gender pay gap is the average difference between a man's and a woman's remuneration.
 - (6) According to research undertaken by the Commonwealth Workplace Gender Equality Agency (WGEA) using any measure the gender pay gap exists;
 - (a) The national gender pay gap is 15.3%, with women earning on average, $253.70 a week less than men;
 - (b) The total remuneration gender pay gap is 22.4%;
 - (c) There is a gender pay gap favouring men in every industry and occupational level, regardless of whether they are male or female-dominated;
 - (d) As soon as women graduate they earn less than men in 17 out of 19 fields of study and across 9 out of 13 industries;
 - (e) Technicians and trades positions have the highest gender pay gap at 26.7%, while clerical and administrative roles have the lowest at 8.4%; and
 - (f) There is a 24.9% pay gap between male and female key management personnel.
 - (7) Employers are continuing to act on pay equity with 155 Australian business leaders publicly signing on to the Workplace Gender Equality Agency (WGEA) Pay Equity Ambassador program, 38% of employers are analysing their pay data and more than half of those are acting on the results, however greater awareness and more direct action is required.
- 3 Mr Dean to move — That this House once again confirms its support for the Frank McDonald Memorial Prize aimed at ensuring our future generations recognize the importance and sacrifice of our service at Gallipoli and the western front during World War I.
- 4 Ms Howlett to move — That the Legislative Council —
- (1) Acknowledges the importance and potential of Tasmania's thoroughbred industry.
 - (2) Recognises that locally bred horses are vitally important to the growth of Tasmania's racing and associated primary industries.
 - (3) Notes that boosting the breeding industry will in turn increase the volume and investment in local racing and will ensure the Tasmanian breeding industry can continue as the major supplier of racing stock for Tasmania, encouraging more people to buy horses locally.
 - (4) Further notes that, importantly, a healthy breeding industry has flow on effects for generating employment opportunities in associated primary industries, particularly in rural and regional areas.
- 5 Mrs Hiscutt to move — That the Council approve, in accordance with subsection 11(7) of the Public Account Act 1986, additional Recurrent Services expenditure in 2017-18 for the purposes detailed in the Section 19 Return for the March Quarter 2018.

6 Mr Finch to move —

- (1) That the Legislative Council acknowledges and notes —
 - (a) the importance of management of Tasmania’s national parks and reserves for the future of the State’s tourism industry and its image abroad; and
 - (b) that there might be benefits in a form of integrated management of parks and reserves with some natural features on private property or access to reserves through private property.
- (2) And further acknowledges and notes that —
 - (a) more work has to be done, with appropriate public and tourism industry input in planning future development in heritage areas and reserves; and
 - (b) it is vitally important that all planning for the future of heritage areas, reserves, and private land with natural tourism potential takes into account potential for walks of various distances, including day walks.

7 Mr Dean to move — That the Parliamentary internship project, “Drug Driving in Tasmania”, be considered and noted.

8 Mr Gaffney to move — That the Law Society of Tasmania Annual Report 2016-2017 be considered and noted.
