Orders of the Day

- (2) Mr Dean to move - That this House once again confirms its support for the Frank McDonald Memorial Prize aimed at ensuring our future generations recognize the importance and sacrifice of our service at Gallipoli and the western front during World War 1.
- (3) Mr Dean to move - That the Parliamentary internship project, “Drug Driving in Tasmania”, be considered and noted

(5) Ms Howlett to move - That the Legislative Council notes:

- (1) That the Tasmanian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (TCCI) has reported from its most recent survey that business confidence is at record levels, and that the June 2018 quarter Deloitte Access Economics Report stated that Tasmania's "Export growth has skyrocketed, bucking the trend seen at a national level";
- (2) That as at September 2018, a record 250,300 Tasmanians are in work; and
- (3) That Tasmania has experienced consistent economic growth over the past four years and is forecasted to continue this growth over the coming years.
