TERRITORIAL POLICE:

INSPECTOR'S REPORT TO JUNE 30, 1877.

Laid upon the Table by Mr. Moore, and ordered by the Council to be printed,
November 14, 1877.

TENTH ANNUAL REPORT of the Inspector of Police on the State of the Territorial Police of Tasmania, for the Year ending 30th June, 1877.

Office of Inspector of Police, 26th October, 1877.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to submit my annual Report upon the state of the Territorial Police for the information of His Excellency the Governor.

The general conduct of the Force during the year ending 30th June last has been highly satisfactory, almost the only exceptions are confined to a few instances of misconduct of Constables when on escort duty.

An unusual number of resignations has taken place, in consequence of the ability of the men to obtain higher remuneration in other employment.

A petition has been presented to the Executive Government asking for an increase of pay, and I have respectfully urged that at least the uniform might be supplied to the Force free of charge. I beg to express the opinion that since the value of labour has increased so materially, it appears to be a reasonable request on the part of the Police that they should receive some proportionate advantage. It may be of interest to state that the Territorial Police Force has been maintained at an almost uniform strength for the last ten years, although the population of the Colony has increased, tin mining and other industries have arisen, and new centres of population have been created.

In June, 1867, the total strength of the Force was 92; in June, 1877, it was 84. Average for the period 85.

Some additions, however, will be required when the arrangements for the protection of the North-eastern Mining Districts can be completed.

Very serious complaints of sheep-stealing have reached me from some of the Municipalities. At present I am powerless to deal with them, and can only regret that my recommendations for the establishment of a Detective Force have not been complied with. The question of supplying some Police service for the Islands in the Straits is yet under consideration.

Inconvenience is still caused from the necessity of supplying vacancies occurring at out-lying stations with newly joined and inexperienced men.

I have found great difficulty in getting new police buildings erected,—indeed none have been built during the year. The most pressing present necessity occurs at Mount Bischoff, where efficient action is almost paralysed by the absence of a lock-up with suitable Constables' quarters.

Improvements in the organisation of the service at Ringarooma and Gould's Country are contemplated. These will be carried out when the difficulties that have occurred in reference to George's Bay are adjusted.

The tabulated statement of crime shows that the number of indictable offences has been practically the same during the past three years. Drunkenness and offences against the Police Act have decreased since last year, as shown by the following table:—

YEAR.	INDICTABLE OFFENCES.			OFFENCES DETERMINED SUMMARILY.
	Number reported to Police.	Number apprehended.	Number Committed or summarily Convicted.	Drunkenness and Disorderly Conduct.		Offences against Police Act.
				Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.

1876 and 7 .....	201	124	103	170	67	132	32

The total strength of the Force is 84 officers and men, of the average age of 38 years.
