Part 6 – Criminal Code Act 1924 Amended

- (2) A person (the accused person) is guilty of a crime if –
- (a) the accused person occupies a position within, or in relation to, a relevant organisation; and
  - (b) the accused person has a reasonable belief that there is a substantial risk that a relevant child may become the victim of a sexual offence committed by another person (the perpetrator) who is –
    - (i) 18 years of age or more; and
    - (ii) a person associated with the relevant organisation; and
  - (c) the accused person, by reason of the person's position, has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove that risk; and
  - (d) the accused person fails to take all reasonable steps in the circumstances to reduce or remove that risk.

Charge: Failing to protect a child.

- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, in a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2), it is not necessary to prove that a sexual offence has been committed.
- (4) It is immaterial that some or all of the circumstances constituting an offence against subsection (2) occurred outside Tasmania, so long as the relevant child was in Tasmania at any time while the substantial risk referred to in subsection (2)(b) existed.
- (5) It is immaterial that both the accused person and the relevant child were outside Tasmania at the time at which some or all of the circumstances constituting an offence against subsection (2) occurred, so long as the sexual offence was at risk of occurring in Tasmania.
- (6) Despite section 127 of the Evidence Act 2001, a member of the clergy of any church or religious denomination is not entitled to refuse to comply with subsection (2) on the grounds that that he or she gained the knowledge as a consequence of information communicated to that

*No. 2 of 2021

PART 9 – EVIDENCE ACT 2001 AMENDED

18. Principal Act

In this Part, the Evidence Act 2001* is referred to as the Principal Act.

19. Section 3 amended (Interpretation)

Section 3(1) of the Principal Act is amended by inserting “124A,” after “124, ” in paragraph (a) of the definition of sexual offence.

20. Section 19 amended (Compellability of spouses and others in certain proceedings)

Section 19(b) of the Principal Act is amended by inserting “124A,” after “section 124,”.

21. Section 94 amended (Application of Part)

Section 94 of the Principal Act is amended by inserting after subsection (3) the following subsections:

- (4) To avoid doubt, any principle or rule of the common law or equity that prevents or restricts the admissibility of evidence about propensity or similar fact evidence in a proceeding is not relevant when applying this Part to tendency evidence or coincidence evidence about a defendant.

- (5) In determining the probative value of tendency evidence or coincidence evidence for the purposes of section 97(1)(b), 97A(4), 98(1)(b) or 101(2), it is not open to the court to have regard to the possibility that the evidence may be the result of collusion, concoction or contamination.

22. Section 97A inserted

After section 97 of the Principal Act, the following section is inserted in Part 6:

97A. Admissibility of tendency evidence in proceedings involving child sexual offences

- (1) This section applies in a criminal proceeding in which the commission by the defendant of an act that constitutes, or may constitute, a child sexual offence is a fact in issue.
- (2) It is presumed that the following tendency evidence about the defendant will have significant probative value for the purposes of sections 97(1)(b) and 101(2):
- (a) tendency evidence about the sexual interest that the defendant has or had in children (even if the defendant has not acted on the interest);

- (b) tendency evidence about the defendant acting on a sexual interest that the defendant has or had in children.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies whether or not the sexual interest or act to which the tendency evidence relates was directed at a complainant in the proceeding, or any other child or children generally.
  - (4) Despite subsection (2), the court may determine that the tendency evidence does not have significant probative value if it is satisfied that there are sufficient grounds to do so.
  - (5) The following matters (whether considered individually or in combination) are not to be taken into account when determining whether there are sufficient grounds for the purposes of subsection (4) unless the court considers there are exceptional circumstances in relation to those matters (whether considered individually or in combination) to warrant taking them into account:
    - (a) the sexual interest or act to which the tendency evidence relates (the tendency sexual interest or act) is different from the sexual

Section 3 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by inserting “124A,” after “124,” in paragraph (b)(i) of the definition of affected child;
- (b) by inserting “124A,” after “section 124,” in the definition of child sexual offence;
- (c) by inserting “124A,” after “124,” in paragraph (b) of the definition of prescribed proceeding;
- (d) by inserting “124A,” after “124,” in paragraph (a) of the definition of specified offence.

28. Section 5A inserted

After section 5 of the Principal Act, the following section is inserted in Part 2:

*No. 79 of 2001

5A. Audio visual statement of certain witnesses admissible as evidence in chief

(1) In this section –

audio visual statement means a statement made by a witness and recorded by any means;

investigating official has the same meaning as in the Evidence Act 2001;

sexual offence has the same meaning as in the Evidence Act 2001.

(2) This section applies in respect of a witness in a criminal proceeding if the witness is –

(a) a child, other than the defendant, who is to give evidence in respect of an offence; or

(b) the alleged victim of a sexual offence; or

(c) the alleged victim of a family violence offence; or

(d) a special witness.

(3) An audio visual statement taken by an investigating official in respect of an offence may be tendered or treated as all or part of the evidence in chief of the witness that made the statement in a proceeding for that offence.

*Justice Miscellaneous (Royal Commission Amendments) Act
Act No. of 2022*

s. 29 Part 10 – Evidence (Children and Special Witnesses) Act 2001 Amended

---

- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if a judge of the court hearing the proceeding considers that the tendering or treating of the audio visual statement as evidence in chief would be contrary to the interests of justice.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents a defendant from being given the opportunity to cross-examine a witness in a proceeding.
- (6) This section does not affect the operation of section 61 of the Justices Act 1959.

29. Section 6A substituted

Section 6A of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section is substituted:

6A. Special hearing to take and record person's evidence in full

- (1) A judge who hears an application under section 6(1)(a), or on the judge's own motion, may make such orders in relation to the affected person's evidence as the judge thinks fit.
- (2) A judge may, in a prescribed proceeding or a specified proceeding, make an order for the holding of a special hearing to take and record a witness's evidence in full if –

- (a) the judge is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice to hold a special hearing; and
- (b) both parties consent to the special hearing.

30. Section 7H amended (Functions of witness intermediary)

Section 7H of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection (3) and substituting the following subsections:

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a person must take an oath, or make an affirmation, in accordance with Schedule 1 before acting as a witness intermediary in a proceeding.
- (4) A witness intermediary is not required to take an oath, or make an affirmation, before –
  - (a) preparing and providing an assessment report about a witness’s communication and other related needs; or
  - (b) attending a ground rules hearing.

31. Section 7I amended (Assessment report)

Section 7I of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

*Justice Miscellaneous (Royal Commission Amendments) Act 2022
Act No. of 2022*

s. 32 Part 10 – Evidence (Children and Special Witnesses) Act 2001 Amended

---

- (a) by omitting paragraph (b) from subsection (3);
- (b) by omitting subsection (5) and substituting the following subsection:
  - (5) The judge in a specified proceeding may make such orders as the judge considers necessary or appropriate regarding –
    - (a) the provision of materials relevant to the preparation of an assessment report; and
    - (b) the distribution and security of all or part of an assessment report.

32. Section 7J amended (Use of witness intermediary)

Section 7J of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by inserting the following subsections after subsection (1):
  - (1A) A judge may, at any time, make an order that a witness intermediary be used in respect of a witness in a specified proceeding if –
    - (a) that witness is a witness referred to in section 7I(1)(a), (b), (c) or (d); and

(b) the judge is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice.

(1B) Without limiting the matters that may be taken into account in determining the interests of justice under subsection (1A), the judge is to take into account whether the witness does or does not wish the order to be made.

(b) by inserting in subsection (2) “or (1A)”
after “(1)”;

(c) by inserting the following subsections
after subsection (2):

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, a judge may make an order under subsection (1A) in respect of a witness regardless of whether or not an assessment report has been provided to the judge in respect of that witness.

(4) An order made under this section is not subject to review or appeal.
