1890.

PARLIAMENT OF TASMANIA.

MUNICIPAL POLICE :

INSPECTOR'S REPORT, 1889.

Presented to both Houses of Parliament by His Excellency's Command.

*Police Department,
Inspector's Office, Hobart, 25th June, 1890.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to submit my Annual Report upon the Police appointed for the several Municipalities within the Colony for the year 1889, in accordance with Section 7 of "The Police Regulation Act, 1865."

I visited the whole of the Municipalities during the year, and frequently met the Superintendents and other police officers.

The staff maintained in each Municipality was sufficient in point of numbers and efficiency for the preservation of the peace and for general protection and security.

The stations were found to be in good order and repair, with the exception of some few of the out-stations, which were, and are still, in a very bad condition. There are some old buildings dilapidated and beyond repair, which are unfit for occupation, nevertheless they are still used; they are generally buildings which were handed over by the Government when the Municipalities were established. No provision has been made by Parliament for the erection of new buildings in Municipalities, and the local Councils cannot meet the heavy expenditure which would be involved if they undertook the work. In every instance where this difficulty has been experienced, the full Police Rate of Ninepence in the Pound has been levied, and there is naturally an indisposition to impose further taxation for the purpose of Police buildings.

I append the usual Returns and particulars of the Police Establishment in each Municipality.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

BERNARD SHAW, Inspector of Police.

The Hon. the Chief Secretary.
