

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY

SESSION OF 2022

(THIRD SESSION OF THE FIFTIETH PARLIAMENT)

NOTICES OF MOTION

No. 12

WEDNESDAY, 19 OCTOBER 2022

Notices of Motion

1 The Attorney-General to move—That the House:—

(1) Notes:—

- (a) the positive effect that the Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC) has had on enforcing the rule of law on Tasmanian building sites;
- (b) that abolishing the ABCC will have flow-on effects that will drive up the cost of housing and construction for families at a time when the industry is already facing increased pricing pressure due to supply chain issues from the fallout of the COVID-19 pandemic and other global activity;
- (c) that abolishing the ABCC will result in a return to widespread anti-competitive, abusive, and threatening behaviour on building sites. Over the last two years alone, the ABCC has successfully prosecuted construction unions with fines totalling $5.7 million for these types of unlawful behaviour; and
- (d) that abolishing the ABCC will weaken the strong Tasmanian building and construction industry which has been vital to our nation-leading economy over the last few years.

(2) Calls on Tasmanian Labor to urge their Federal Labor colleagues in government to resist the payback to the CFMEU who supported them with $5 million in donations over the last three years, and to not abolish the ABCC. (16 August 2022)

2 The Minister for Veterans' Affairs to move—That the House:—

(1) Recognises that 18 August 2022 is Vietnam Veterans Day, an annual day of remembrance for those who served during the Vietnam War.

(2) Notes:—

- (a) that this day, originally known as Long Tan Day, commemorates the day in 1966 when the battle of Long Tan was fought by the men of D Company, 6th Battalion, the Royal Australian Regiment (6RAR); and
- (b) that this day, first commemorated in 1969 with the raising of a cross at the battlefield by the men of 6RAR, has since been adopted to cover all veterans who served in the Vietnam War—the longest conflict in Australia's history.

(3) Pays tribute to the almost 60,000 Australians who served in Vietnam between May 1962 and April 1975, including 521 who paid the ultimate price and more than 3,000 who were wounded.

(4) Acknowledges the service of the approximately 1,800 Tasmanians who served in Vietnam, including 16 Tasmanian born soldiers who died in their country's service.

(5) Further notes commemorative service and wreath-laying ceremonies will be held across Tasmania to mark the event, and thanks all the members of the VVAA Tasmania, including State President Terry Roe, for their efforts in supporting Vietnam veterans across the State over the years.

(6) Honours the service and sacrifice of all those who fought for freedom in this conflict and remembers the motto of the VVAA: "Honour the Dead but Fight like Hell for the Living." (16 August 2022)

- (2) Notes several state AMA Presidents have voiced their deep concern about cutting isolation times, and questioned whether these changes are made for health reasons.
- (3) Recognises the federal AMA estimates as many as 30% of people will remain infectious on days six and seven, and will be re-entering the community able to pass the virus on to co-workers, clients and the broader community.
- (4) Further understands the reduction from seven to five days of isolation does not apply to people working in identified vulnerable settings, effectively creating two classes of workers and two layers of vulnerability to infection.
- (5) Further notes medical advice that people’s immunity from vaccination and previous infectious is likely to continue to wane, exposing them to waves of transmission from yet-to-emerge new variants, ongoing unsustainable demand on hospitals, and serious health outcomes including death and post-acute Covid conditions.
- (6) Agrees the mandatory isolation of positive cases, and mask wearing in high-risk settings, remain crucial to managing the ongoing public health risk and burden of disease from Covid.
- (7) Calls on the Minister for Health, Hon Jeremy Rockliff, MP, to release the medical and health advice that has been used to justify the shortened isolation period in Tasmania. (6 September 2022)

- (5) Expresses deep concern for the safety, education and wellbeing of children and young people detained at Ashley.
- (6) Further acknowledges there are no impediments under the punitive and outdated ‘Youth Justice Act 1997’ for alternative remand arrangements to be put in place to prevent the traumatising of young people on remand at Ashley Youth Detention Centre.
- (7) Calls on the Government to declare, via Gazette notice, an alternative - therapeutic – remand facility. (6 September 2022)

 - (c) while supplying just 1.6 per cent of the world salmon supply, the Tasmanian Salmon industry is the largest fishery in Australia by both volume and economic value.
 - (2) Notes:—
 - (a) that the 12-month moratorium on no net increase in leased farming areas in Tasmanian waters was promised to be lifted in September 2022;

 - (a) clearly outline for Tasmanians and those working in the industry whether, as promised, the moratorium has in fact been lifted;
 - (b) outline for Tasmanians and those working in the industry whether the moratorium has in fact been extended until the release of the 10-year salmon plan, and continues to exist under a different name; and

- (3) Recognises Mr Assange’s impending prosecution by the United States of America constitutes a serious attack on the fundamental democratic freedoms of the press.
- (4) Further notes:—
 - (a) allegations that the CIA illegally spied on US citizens while they visited Assange in the Ecuadorian embassy; and

- (6) Calls on:—
 - (a) the President of the United States, Hon Joe Biden, to intervene in the extradition and prosecution of Mr Assange, and instruct the US Attorney-General and US Department of Justice to withdraw all charges; and
