This Public Bill originated in the House of Assembly, and, having this day passed, is now ready for presentation to the Legislative Council for its concurrence.

LAURA ROSS, Clerk of the House
11 May 2023

(Brought in by the Minister for Local Government, the Honourable Nicholas Adam Street)

A BILL FOR

An Act to amend the Local Government Act 1993

Be it enacted by Her Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Local Government Amendment (Code of Conduct) Act 2022.

2. Commencement

The provisions of this Act commence on a day or days to be proclaimed.

Local Government Amendment (Code of Conduct) Act 2022
Act No. of 2022

s. 3

3. Principal Act

In this Act, the *Local Government Act 1993 is referred to as the Principal Act.

4. Section 3 amended (Interpretation)

Section 3 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by omitting the definition of code of conduct and substituting the following definition:

code of conduct means the code of conduct made by the Minister, and in force, under section 28R;

- (b) by inserting the following definition after the definition of Director, MPES:

dispute resolution process, in relation to a council, means the process of resolving a dispute that is performed in accordance with the dispute resolution policy adopted by the council in accordance with section 28JA;

- (c) by inserting the following definition after the definition of GST law:

initial assessor, in relation to a code of conduct complaint, means the person appointed under section 28ZA(1AA) to be the initial assessor for the complaint;

*No. 95 of 1993

- (d) by inserting the following definition after the definition of issuing place:

investigating Panel, in respect of a code of conduct complaint, means the panel convened under section 28L to investigate and determine the complaint;

- (e) by omitting the definition of model code of conduct.

5. Part 3, Division 3AA inserted

After section 28J of the Principal Act, the following Division is inserted in Part 3:

Division 3AA – Dispute resolution procedures

28JA. Dispute resolution policies

- (1) A council must adopt a dispute resolution policy.
- (2) A dispute resolution policy adopted by a council under subsection (1) is to specify the processes to be followed if there is a dispute as to matters that may be the subject of a code of conduct complaint.
- (3) A dispute resolution policy is to –

Local Government Amendment (Code of Conduct) Act 2022
Act No. of 2022

Local Government Amendment (Code of Conduct) Act 2022
Act No. of 2022

s. 8

280A. Disclosure of interest

- (1) If a member of the Code of Conduct Panel has an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest in a matter, the member must notify the Executive Officer, as soon as practicable, if the matter is relevant to the investigation and determination of a code of conduct complaint.
- (2) A notification by a member under subsection (1), in relation to a conflict of interest, is to –
 - (a) specify –
 - (i) the nature of the conflict of interest; and
 - (ii) how the conflict of interest is relevant to the investigation and determination of the relevant code of conduct complaint; and
 - (b) include a statement from the member as to whether the member believes that the conflict of interest prevents, or does not prevent, the member from acting fairly in respect of the investigation and determination of the relevant code of conduct complaint.

Local Government Amendment (Code of Conduct) Act 2022
Act No. of 2022

s. 8

- (3) The Executive Officer must not appoint a member of the Code of Conduct Panel to be the initial assessor or a member of the investigating Panel, in respect of a code of conduct complaint, if the member –
 - (a) has notified the Executive Officer, under subsection (1), of a conflict of interest that is relevant to the complaint; and
 - (b) has made a statement, under subsection (2)(b), that the conflict of interest would prevent the member from acting fairly in respect of the complaint.
- (4) A member of the Code of Conduct Panel who has been appointed as the initial assessor or a member of the investigating Panel, in respect of a code of conduct complaint, must resign from the appointment if the member –
 - (a) has notified the Executive Officer, under subsection (1), of a conflict of interest that is relevant to the complaint; and
 - (b) has made a statement, under subsection (2)(b), that the conflict of interest would prevent the member from acting fairly in respect of the complaint.
- (5) If a member of the Code of Conduct Panel has resigned under subsection (4)
