Laid upon the Table by the Minister of Lands, 12 October, 1881, and ordered by the House to be printed.

RETURN showing the Amount of Money expended in Repairs to the Sorell Causeway during the past Twelve Months, and how such Money was expended. (Information supplied by Chairman of Sorell Main Road Board.)

Amount.	Particulars of Expenditure.
£ s. d.
8 10 6	First expended in repairs by authority of Commissioner of Main Roads.
172 14 3	Expended in repairs under Overseer Hall.
22 6 0	Expended in tools and necessaries for effecting repairs.
£203 10 9	Total Amount expended.

The works carried out consisted of repairs to the northern slope of the Bluff forcing (which has been extensively damaged by the heavy gales); viz., filling holes and facing the slope with large square blocks of stone grouted with cement.

C. O'REILLY, Commissioner of Main Roads.
