2. NOVA SCOTIA.

CHAPTER XII.—OF CUSTOMS DUTIES.*—Passed 31st March, 1851.

1. THIS chapter shall come into operation on the 1st day of April, in the year of our Lord 1851, and shall continue in force until the 1st day of April, 1852.

2. There shall be collected and paid unto Her Majesty, for the use of the province, upon all goods brought into this province by sea or inland carriage, the several duties set forth in figures in the table hereinafter contained, denominated "Table of Duties," opposite the respective articles in such table mentioned, according to the value, number, or quantity of every such article.

3. Animals certified by the president and secretary of any agricultural society to have been imported for the purpose of improving the breed, shall be admitted duty free.

4. There shall be collected and paid unto Her Majesty, for the use of the province, upon all spirituous liquors distilled, compounded, or made within the province, and which in the table are specifically enumerated, the several duties therein stated.

5. The goods mentioned in the table hereinafter contained, denominated "Table of Exemptions," shall be free of duty.

6. The duties shall be collected, paid, and received according to the British weights and measures in use in this province, and where the duties are in the table of duties imposed according to any specific quantity, value or number, the same shall apply in like proportion to any greater or less quantity, value or number.

7. The duties shall be collected, paid and received, and the proceeds thereof applied under the provisions of the provincial statutes from time to time in force concerning the same.

8. The duties shall be paid to the collectors of the colonial revenue, and received at the Receiver General's Office, either in Treasury notes of the province at their full value of 20s. each, or in current coin at their legal rate of tender.

9. Duties paid into the Receiver General's Office shall be carried to account of the provincial revenue, and become part of the public funds, and shall be paid and applied to such purposes, and no other, as may be expressed in the provincial statutes from time to time in force, and shall, even when authorised by any such statute, be drawn only by warrant under the hand and seal of the Governor.

10. The Governor in Council may, whenever it shall be thought advisable so to do, declare by proclamation what articles, the growth, production, or manufacture of the British North American possessions of Canada, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island or Newfoundland, or any of them, may be imported into the province free of duty, and may declare in what manner, and under what restrictions, the same may be so imported; but if wheat flour, the production of Canada, be allowed under such proclamation to be imported duty free, such flour shall be admitted duty free, whether it comes direct from Canada or through warehouse in the United States; but in the latter case it must be certified to be the production of Canada.

11. Whenever the importation into the United States of America of the following articles of the growth and production of British North America, viz., grain and bread stuffs of all kinds, potatoes and other vegetables, fruits, seeds, hops, hay and straw, animals, salted and fresh meats, butter, cheese, lard, tallow, hides, horns, wool, undressed skins, furs of all kinds, ores of all kinds, iron in pigs and blooms, copper, lead in pigs, grindstones and stones of all kinds, earth, coals, lime, ochres, gypsum ground or unground, rock salt, wood timber, and lumber of all kinds, firewood, ashes, bark, fish, fish oil, train oil, spermaceti oil, head matter and blubber, fins and skins the produce of fish or creatures

*By a subsequent enactment, intituled (chap. 2) "An Act to continue and amend the Revenue Laws," this Act is continued and amended as follows:—

2. Chap. 12, "Of Customs Duties," is amended by adding to the 11th clause thereof the following words: "Provided, that if at any time hereafter Her Majesty, by Order in Council, shall declare that by virtue of any treaty with Her Majesty, any other foreign nation is entitled to trade with Nova Scotia on the same terms as the United States, it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, and he is required, forthwith on the receipt of such Order in Council, to issue a proclamation, declaring that from the date thereof, or from such other day as may be fixed by Her Majesty in Council, the duties on all such articles as are by this chapter allowed to be imported free of duty, being the growth and production of the United States, shall cease on the like articles, being the growth and production of such foreign nation; and thereupon the duties on such last mentioned articles shall cease to be payable, so long as such foreign nation shall allow the free importation of the like articles, being the growth and production of Nova Scotia;" and the chapter so amended is hereby continued until the first day of April, 1853.

3. Wheat flour, the production of Canada, imported into this province, shall be admitted through a warehouse in the United States, or a port in the British Provinces, being duly certified as to its origin, on the same terms as if imported direct.

And the Act 17 Vict., c 9, "An Act to continue and further amend the Laws imposing Customs Duties," passed 31st March, 1854, continues the foregoing enactments, until the 1st April, 1855, with the exception that the duty on salted beef and pork is reduced from 6s. sterling per hundred weight to 4s. sterling per barrel on each of those articles respectively.

living in the water, or any of such articles, shall be by law admitted free from duty, the Governor in Council may, by proclamation in the Royal Gazette, fix a short day thereafter on which the duties on like articles, or any of them, being the growth and production of the United States, shall cease; and from and after the day so appointed all the articles specified in the proclamation, being the growth and production of the United States, shall be admitted into the province duty free, upon such proof of origin and character as may be required by any order of the Governor in Council.
