Subject: Submission to the Joint Select Committee on Future Gaming Markets

Dear Members of the Committee, I am writing to you in concern for more poker machines been placed in the Glenorchy area and other areas. I am pleading with you to reject the Liberal Governments plans to place more Poker Machines in clubs and pubs. They are awful Machines and they take the money from families. I hope you will stop these awful machines from coming to pubs and clubs. I dont want to see families out on the street because of these evil machines. Families need food,housing and money to survive and these machines need to be gone.

Yours sincerely, Sara Dane
