Legislative Council Committee Inquiry

MEDIA ADVISORY

11 September 2017

Inquiry into TasWater Ownership

The Legislative Council has formed a Select Committee to conduct an inquiry into the ownership of TasWater. The Inquiry will examine the benefits and challenges associated with the Tasmanian Government's proposal to take control of TasWater under State Government ownership.

The Inquiry will be conducting public hearings in Launceston on Wednesday 13 September and Hobart on Thursday 14 September.

A list of witnesses will be circulated on the Committee website as soon as it is finalised.
