

Vacant Housing Units

Ms FINLAY question to MINISTER for HOUSING

There are three units that have been finished in Beauty Point for some time, almost a year. They sit vacant, not housing any families in the middle of a housing crisis, like many other properties across Tasmania. The constituent is wondering when they will host a family and be used as a home in Beauty Point.