Dear Mr Mitchell

Thank you for your question asked in the House of Assembly on 28 May 2026 on behalf of your constituent Ken regarding crime and policing in Campbell Town.

Tasmania Police continues to provide operational policing responses to Campbell Town residents, businesses and the surrounding community. Campbell Town is part of the Central North Division, which is serviced by an Inspector, three Sergeants and a team of officers at Deloraine, Longford, Westbury and Campbell Town.

The Central North Division and the Northern District provide roster coverage across the division, including 24-hour capability, with members on call at both Deloraine and Longford sub-divisions. These officers continue to conduct proactive patrols throughout the division, including Campbell Town, on a regular basis.

Police have recently held several community and business meetings within Campbell Town to discuss local issues and concerns. The Campbell Town community can rest assured that Tasmania Police remains committed to continuing to provide a strong local policing service and engagement into the future.

Yours faithfully
