Legislative Council Elections

Mr PRESIDENT - Before the adjournment I wish the members for Montgomery and Pembroke all the very best for the election tomorrow, and also to the Nelson election candidates. While the spotlight is often focused on candidates, it should also be focused on the electorate officers. I thank all the Legislative Council electorate officers for the work they do and wish those whose members are standing for election this Saturday all the very best.

Members acknowledged the President's long and meritorious service to the Legislative Council with a round of applause.

The Council adjourned at 9.13 a.m.
