

Overlay 1 (Nov 01 2023): The structures represented by the green shapes include the critical marine structures on the critical path for the TTL T3 Project. The shapes in blue are floating barges required to support the construction of these elements. This shows that the construction of the critical path structures would have not been possible at this time due to the ongoing presence of C48 works and plant in the area.