Notices of Motion

- 99 Ms White to move—That the House:—
- (1) Calls on the Minister for Housing, Hon. Roger Jaensch MP to direct additional funding to provide shelter for people this winter and work with the sector to implement urgent solutions within 30 days to support Tasmanians facing homelessness.
  - (2) Notes that winter is already upon us and it is estimated that approximately 1,600 people are sleeping rough in Tasmania.
  - (3) Further notes the Liberal Government promised to build 900 new homes and has only delivered 316 homes in the past five years.
  - (4) Recognises the public housing waitlist has grown to over 3,200.
  - (5) Further notes waiting times have tripled to average 56 weeks for priority applicants – including women escaping domestic violence.
  - (6) Further notes children have been removed from their parents' care due to homelessness.
  - (7) Agrees that urgent action is required now to deal with the housing crisis. (13 June 2019)
- 100 Ms White to move—That the House refers the following matter to the Standing Committee of Privileges and Conduct — Whether the Minister for Housing, Hon. Roger Jaensch MP has misled the House with particular reference to the following:—
- (a) on 18 June 2019 the Minister amended a Motion titled "Short Stay Accommodation" to commit the Government to "the delivery of 900 new homes by the end of June 2019, with over half of that supply to be delivered in the greater Hobart region";
  - (b) on 13 June 2019 the Minister claimed it was a "falsehood" that he had committed to the delivery of 900 new homes;
  - (c) the Minister misled the Parliament on 18 June 2018 and is now trying to cover his tracks; and
  - (d) the House agreed to amendments to the Motion on the basis of the commitments made by the Minister; (13 June 2019)
- 101 The Leader of the House to move:—
That the _____ the House of Assembly refers to the House Committee the matter of 'Parliamentary Counsel' and that the matters pertaining to the location within Parliament House and access arrangements to the Parliamentary Counsel be a matter to be determined by the Committee and reported to both houses. (13 June 2019).
- 102 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (1) Notes that Motor Neurone Disease (MND) affects over 420,000 people globally with over 140,000 people diagnosed with MND each year, which is 384 new cases every day.
- (2) Further notes that over 2,000 Australians are living with MND, including more than 40 Tasmanians, with MND Australia reporting more than 2 people per day die from MND.
- (3) Further notes that on the Queen's Birthday holiday "The Big Freeze 5 at the G" at the MCG, coordinated by FightMND, saw a variety of celebrities take on the freeze challenge for MND, which has so in 2019 raised over $4.8 million and tens of millions since 2015.
- (4) Thanks Neale Daniher, football great and former Essendon and Melbourne player - as well as coach of Melbourne Football Club from 1998 to 2007 - for his courage in living with MND and supporting fundraising efforts for research and advocacy.
- (5) Recognises that, 21 June 2019, is MND Global Day, a global day of recognition for Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) and MND—a disease that affects every country on the globe.
- (6) Congratulates and thanks both MND Australia and MND Tasmania, who for over twenty two years, have proved an effective advocate, promoted optimal care and support options for those living with MND and tirelessly raised funds for research into the cause and, ultimately, cure for MND. (13 June 2019)

103 The Minister for Energy to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises the retirement of Rick Tipping, Executive Officer of the No Interest Loans Scheme (NILS) Tasmania and his dedication to the needs of low income Tasmanians for nearly two decades.
- (2) Notes that Mr Tipping was instrumental in establishing NILS Tasmania in 2002, with the organisation providing more than 20,000 no interest loans to Tasmanians in need over this time.
- (3) Further notes that through a partnership between Aurora Energy and NILS Tasmania, formed in 2015, more than 1,500 Tasmanians have received over $1.8 million in subsidy funding to purchase energy efficient applications for their home through the Energy Saver Loan and Subsidy Program.
- (4) Acknowledges the Government's commitment of $1 million over four years towards the NILS Tasmania Energy Saver Loan and Subsidy Program to expand the reach and impact of this invaluable program.
- (5) Further acknowledges the $44.8 million in electricity concessions that provides much needed support to over 90,000 Tasmanians every year.
- (6) Welcomes John Hooper as the new Executive Officer of NILS Tasmania, and the partnership the Government, Aurora Energy and NILS Tasmania will continue to forge together to look after the needs of Tasmania's most vulnerable individuals and families. (13 June 2019)

104 The Attorney-General to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises that an institution's involvement in the National Redress Scheme is an important step in acknowledging the wrongs that were done, as well as means to provide survivors access to a sense of justice.
- (2) Acknowledges the Government's commitment of $70 million towards the State's involvement in the National Redress Scheme.
- (3) Welcomes the unanimous decision by all of Tasmania's local Councils to join the National Redress Scheme.
- (4) Urges all relevant institutions who have not yet done so to formally join the National Redress Scheme. (30 July 2019)

105 The Minister for Corrections to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes the recent opening of the new $620,000 Community Corrections facility at Devonport.
- (2) Further notes this is just one part of the Hodgman Liberal Government's commitment to providing enhanced case management services on the North-West Coast, with the new office creating an additional three full-time equivalent position.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (3) Recognises the great work done by our dedicated community corrections staff, and the critical role they play in the rehabilitation of offenders. (30 July 2019)

106 The Minister for Racing to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges a major boost for the Tasmanian racing industry with the announcement of a lucrative new partnership deal between Tasracing and Ladbrokes.
- (2) Recognises that the partnership will open up new marketing opportunities for clubs across all codes, while also allowing Tasracing to broaden its promotion to the national market.
- (3) Notes the Hodgman Liberal Government's commitment to ensuring Tasmania's racing industry continues to grow, with the economic benefits reaching far beyond the racecourse (30 July 2019)

107 The Attorney-General to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that Mr Richard Connock has been reappointed to the position of Ombudsman for a further five years.
- (2) Congratulates Mr Connock who has served in this position, which incorporates the roles of Health Complaints Commissioner, Custodial Inspector, Principal Official Visitor and Co-ordinator of the Official Visitors Scheme, since 2015.
- (3) Further notes that this follows the Hodgman Liberal Government's increased funding of $245,000 per year for the Office of the Ombudsman in the 2019/20 State Budget to support the Office of the Ombudsman's Right to Information work.
- (4) Recognises that this additional funding will enable the recruitment of a new Principal Officer and new Investigation and Review Officer to increase the capacity of the office in relation to Right to Information requests.
- (5) Further notes the Ombudsman in performing a wide range of functions and diversity of services, operates in an impartial and objective way to resolve complaints and improve the quality and standard of Tasmanian public administration. (30 July 2019)

108 The Minister for the Arts to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges a new exhibition celebrating contemporary Tasmanian portraits by prominent and award winning Tasmanian artist, Geoff Dyer has opened at the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery (TMAG).
- (2) Recognises this exhibition, 'Geoff Dyer:Portraits', represents the first time the portraits have been publicly displayed in Tasmania, and the only time they have been exhibited as a group.
- (3) Notes the works depict a range of Tasmanians, including Alec Campbell (Gallipoli survivor), Richard Flanagan (author), David Walsh (founder of MONA), John Clark (former Director of the National Institute of Dramatic Arts) and Jim Everett (writer and poet) among others.
- (4) Further notes this exhibition will shine a new light on this lesser-known aspect of Geoff Dyer's art, while also providing a unique insights into the portrait process and the life of each person pictured. (30 July 2019)

109 The Attorney-General to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges 48 students from 22 schools took part in the week-long Youth Parliament 2019 held from 15-19 July.
- (2) Recognises the students were involved in debating and passing a number of 'Youth Bills', including the Connecting Tasmania Bill (public infrastructure), School Support Services Bill (education) and the Roadkill Reduction Bill (wildlife protection).
- (3) Notes the Hodgman Liberal Government supported the 2019 Youth Parliament program with a $13,750 grant through YMCA Hobart.
- (4) Further acknowledges the work of Tasmanian Parliament staff who provide considerable assistance with liaison and education staff, catering and the venue. (30 July 2019)

110 The Minister for Energy—That the House:—

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (1) Condemns the Greens and Dr Bob Brown on their hypocrisy, having previously actively campaigned for the shutdown of the entire Australian coal industry to be replaced with renewables, to now opposing renewable energy developments in Tasmania.
- (2) Notes the public statements by the Greens and Dr Brown opposing the Robbins Island wind farm development, that if approved, would not only create hundreds of jobs on Tasmania's North West, but also have the potential to inject up to 1000 megawatts of renewable energy into the grid.
- (3) Acknowledges that the Robbins Island Wind Farm development, combined with other wind farms, the proposed Marinus second interconnector and pumped hydro developments, have the potential to inject up to $5 billion into our State's economy and create thousands of jobs, particularly in regional Tasmania.
- (4) Further notes that the proposed wind farm at Robbins Island, like other developments of this size and type, is subject to rigorous development and environmental approvals, with the opportunity for public submissions. (30 July 2019)

111 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges that the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to helping Tasmanian farmers be as competitive as possible and our 'On-Farm Energy Audit and Capital Grant Program' has been an outstanding success.
- (2) Notes the $750,000 'On-Farm Energy Audit and Capital Grant Program' was launched in 2018 and has already had 80 applications worth $560,000 approved, with an additional 15 applications currently being assessed.
- (3) Further notes that an additional $250,000 will be made available to the Program to specifically help dairy farmers achieve energy savings, and will be reopening soon.
- (4) Further acknowledges that the additional funding allows dairy farmers to engage a qualified professional to review their energy use, identify savings and then to implement recommended energy efficiency measures, including for capital costs.
- (5) Further notes our $429 million per annum dairy industry supports thousands of jobs across hundreds of farms and growing the industry is a key part of the Hodgman Liberal Government's comprehensive AgriFood Plan to grow the annual value of agriculture to $10 billion by 2050.
- (6) Commends the dairy industry, farmers and processors for their valuable contribution to primary industries in Tasmania. (30 July 2019)

112 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that the Hodgman Liberal Government is a passionate supporter of our farmers and agribusiness, and the vital role they play in building a stronger economy and creating jobs and vibrant rural communities.
- (2) Further notes that only the Hodgman Liberal Government has a target to grow the annual farm gate value of the agricultural sector to $10 billion by 2050 backed-up by a comprehensive Sustainable AgriFood Plan that is delivering on that target.
- (3) Further notes that according to the latest data the value of Tasmania's agricultural production increased by more than nine per cent in 2017-18 to just over $1.6 billion.
- (4) Recognises that $100 million invested in the 2019 Budget is supporting farmers and agribusiness with initiatives ranging from irrigation development, industry development across all key agricultural sectors, research and innovation, the Rural Financial Counselling Service, Farm Business Mentoring, Blundstone Scholarships, the Tasmanian Women in Agriculture and Rural Youth Tasmania leadership programs, the TFGA Living Next Door to a Farmer Campaign, Agrigrowth Liaison Officers and the FarmPoint website and helpline, agricultural education and skills plus many more.
- (5) Condemns any acts of environmental and animal activism to unfairly target, restrict, and invade on a farmer's legitimate rights and business.
- (6) Acknowledges and supports Tasmanian farmers who produce the food and fibre that our families, state and nation relies on. (30 July 2019)

113 Ms O'Connor to move—That the House:—

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (1) Notes that during the 2018 State Election campaign, Liberal MPs and candidates, including the Premier, Hon. Will Hodgman MP and Treasurer, Hon. Peter Gutwein MP stood outside the Glenorchy RSL and falsely claimed that without poker machines the venue would close, threatening ANZAC Day celebrations.
- (2) Further notes with sadness the unexpected closure of the Glenorchy RSL on Sunday 21 July 2019, the loss of eleven local jobs and a service highly valued by Glenorchy veterans.
- (3) Agrees the Tasmanian Liberal Party, the Premier, Treasurer, and Liberal candidates perpetrated a lie on the Tasmanian people in the lead up to the State Election on behalf of their gambling industry donors.
- (4) Calls on the Premier, on behalf of the Liberal Party and its elected representatives to apologise to:—
  - (a) veterans and staff from the now closed Glenorchy RSL for shamelessly exploiting them for political gain; and
  - (b) Tasmanian voters for misleading them on the impact of removing poker machines from pubs and clubs.
- (5) Further agrees poker machines should be removed from pubs and clubs. (30 July 2019)

114 Ms O'Byrne to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes the Federal Liberal Government's decision to fund couples counselling under the National Action Plan to Reduce Violence Against Women and their Children.
- (2) Further notes that experts in women's safety and advocates have advised the Government that this action was not recommended in the National Action Plan.
- (3) Further notes the Government was advised against the move as the "Specialised Family Violence Services" grant guidelines contained no specifications as to specialist domestic and family violence knowledge or expertise nor the need to employ domestic and family violence safety mechanisms.
- (4) Further notes the listed organisations eligible to apply for the grant are largely faith-based services delivering family relationship services and not specialist domestic and family violence services and there has been no consultation or transparency with the sector as to how these organisations were selected.
- (5) Further notes that no reference was made in the grant guidelines as to any requirement to meet the National Outcome Standards for Perpetrator Interventions which were developed under the National Plan to ensure perpetrators are held to account through effective interventions that stop their violence.
- (6) Further notes that experts have advised that the risk of couples counselling is injury and death, and that any type of intervention in these settings should only be performed by specialist practitioners.
- (7) Recognises that couples counselling is not safe for victims of domestic abuse.
- (8) Calls on the Government to listen to survivors of domestic abuse and to the specialist services that support them, and to act in accordance with the evidence of interventions which are proven to be safe and effective in addressing domestic abuse including women's specialist services providing information, support, safety planning, referrals, court advocacy, case management, supported accommodation and counselling, as well as accredited men's behaviour change services, ensuring that these services are culturally safe and specific services for Aboriginal, CALD and LGBTIQ communities.
- (9) Further calls upon the Premier and the Minister for the Prevention of Family Violence Hon. Will Hodgman MP to immediately act to ensure that Federal funding in Tasmania is delivered according to the National Action Plan recommendations to qualified specialist services. (30 July 2019)

115 Ms White to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes the extreme pressure on Tasmania's health system which has seen unprecedented ambulance ramping and unreasonably long wait times for patients in emergency departments across the State.
- (2) Further notes that there are long wait times for services outside the hospital, including mental health services, as well as outpatient services.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (3) Recognises the strain this is placing on staff working in the health system and the patients and family members who are trying to access health care.
- (4) Supports our health work force and thanks them for their dedication and service to our State.
- (5) Acknowledges the Tasmanian Health Service cannot withstand budget cuts when they are already operating with insufficient funds.
- (6) Does not support any cuts to the Tasmanian Health Service budget.
- (7) Asks that the Government quarantine health from any budget cuts. (30 July 2019)
