

August-September Severe Weather Event - Waste Disposal Support

Mr FAIRS question to MINISTER for PARKS and ENVIRONMENT

Following the recent storms that left many households without power for days, I have been contacted by constituents who have had food spoiled during power outages. I am aware that there are grants available to households without power for 72 hours. However, what support is there for households disposing of organic and storm waste?