3	The Committee is to commission an independent review of Ministerial and Parliamentary Services organisational and governance structure, including an audit of instruments of appointment, employment conditions, recruitment processes and pay structures.	6 mths	On 20 September 2024, the Clerks communicated WRA Report to staff at a Town Hall and by email. The WRA Report is available on the Committee’s webpage. A funding request has been submitted, with significant progress of organisation structure recommendations dependent upon the provision of additional funding. The organisational structure recommendations are being incorporated into recruitment strategies where applicable. Risk and Audit Committee have undertaken two reviews of governance within the Parliament. Implementation of the recommendations from these reviews is largely complete.	Implementation of organisational structure recommendations (dependent upon funding). Continual review and improvement of recruitment process.	To be advised.

			Letter of Offer Templates for all forms of employment have been created and undergo consistent review in line with the continuous improvement cycle. Employee Value statements have been drafted and are featured in positions descriptions, job ads. Psychometric testing is required for all recruitment campaigns (excluding casual positions and those roles where only one internal applicant wins the role or is selected from a merit list). Results have been highly valuable. Surveys, discussion with managers and staff, as well as performance of new employees are being monitored. Policy, procedure and associated forms/guides/templates launched.
			With the release of the WRA report (the report), information sessions were held with MPS electorate officers regarding recommendation 6 of the report that suggested electorate officers should be combined under the management of Legislature-General. Further discussions have been held regarding MPS electorate officers and communication to the Committee will occur in the foreseeable future.	Discussions continuing.	To be advised.
