Extracts from Reports of Collectors of Agricultural Statistics	195

TO THE HONORABLE THE COLONIAL SECRETARY.

Legislative Council Office, August 8, 1870.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to present to you the Statistics of this Colony for the year 1869.

I am sorry to have to report that a very large proportion of the labour and anxiety attaching to my office as Government Statistician is still caused by the failure of some persons to send in their returns with due punctuality and care. For some of these returns, repeated applications have had to be made, and great annoyance has been caused by their absence; and in the case of one Government Officer, the assistance of the head of his department had to be invoked in order to obtain the required information.

The mere clerical labour involved in sending out Circulars to defaulters three or four times over is very considerable; but the worst feature in the case is, that amid the multiplicity of subjects daily demanding attention, the fact of certain returns not having been received sometimes escapes notice until the information is actually wanted, and the printing is thus delayed.

In the remarks which I may here offer on the different returns, I shall follow, as in previous years, the classification of the volume itself.

I.—POPULATION.

The estimated population on December 31, 1869, was 101,592.

Population.

By the Census taken on the 7th February last, the actual population on that day is stated to have been only 99,328, the proportion of the sexes being, Males, 52,853, Females, 46,475.

The actual population was therefore less than the estimated, by 2264.

Such a result is certainly contrary to what might have been reasonably expected, on the assumption that a number of births are annually left unregistered, and it can only be explained by supposing that a number of persons of whom no record is kept annually leave the Colony.

Proceeding to compare the Census of 1870 with that of 1861,—the interval between the two being 8 years and 10 months—we find an increase on the whole of 9351, or 10·39 per cent. The difference between the number in the Census of 31st March, 1857, and that of 7th April, 1861—a period of 4 years and a few days—was 8485, or 10·41 per cent., so that the increase of population is now only about half as rapid as it was at the date of the previous Census.

Comparison of Census of 1870
and 1861.

On the 7th February, 1870, the proportion of males to females was as 113·72 to 100; on the 7th April, 1861, it was as 122·80 to 100. The disproportion between the sexes has therefore, as might naturally be expected, been somewhat lessened.

On several former occasions, I have had to remark on the continuous decrease of effective males, and the corresponding increase in the proportion of those who are incapacitated by infancy or old age from assisting in the production of wealth. The above table affords a convincing proof of the fact. In 1861 the proportions for males were—

Under 15 years of age	35·02 per cent.
Fifteen and under 50	49·71 "
Fifty and upwards	15·27 "

In 1870 they were—

Under 15 years	40·43 per cent.
Fifteen and under 50	40·55 "
Fifty and upwards	19·02 "

The males under 15 had therefore increased by 5·41 per cent. of the whole number of males; those above 50 had increased by 3·75 per cent.; while those between 15 and 50, the most vigorous period of life, had declined by 9·16 per cent., or almost exactly equal to the joint increase of the other two classes.

Dealing with the female population in the same way, we arrive at the following result :—

	1861.	1870.
	Per cent. of total Females.	Per cent. of total Females.
Under 15 years of age	42·06	45·35
Fifteen and under 50	50·73	44·87
Fifty and upwards	7·21	9·78

The same law is also found to prevail here,—although not in the same degree,—the increase being—Under 15, 3·29 per cent.; over 50, 2·57 per cent.; the decrease on those between 15 and 50 being 5·86 per cent.

In England and Wales, by the last Census of 1861, the proportions of each age to persons of the same sex of all ages were,—

	Males, per cent.	Females, per cent.
Under 15 years	36·70	34·62
Fifteen and under 50	49·19	50·52
Fifty and upwards	14·11	14·86

While then, England had only 36·70 per cent. of her males under 15, we have 40·43 per cent.: while she has 49·19 per cent. at the most vigorous age, between 15 and

* The above per centages are the ratios to the total of each sex, not to the total population.

50, we have only 40·55 per cent.; and while she has only 14·11 per cent. of men of an age at which most people may be supposed to have passed the most useful period of their life, we have 19·02 per cent.

Thus, in every way, the comparison is against ourselves.

But there is another exceedingly important result to be noticed.

The practical conclusion to be drawn from these facts is, that an influx of able-bodied males in the most vigorous period of life is an absolute necessity. The exertions of Mr. Buck in Germany, and the strong, almost feverish, desire on the part of a large class in England to emigrate, will do much to promote such an influx; and the general depression in the sister Colonies, by equalising the conditions in each case, together with the prospect of extensive and profitable gold-fields being shortly developed in Tasmania, will further tend to the same result. Hitherto, the superior inducements offered to capital and labour by the other Colonies have attracted them thither; but a reaction has now set in, which must result to the advantage of this Colony.

It is a very remarkable fact that while in England the proportion of females of 50 and upwards was 14·86 per cent. of the whole number, in this Colony it was only 9·78 (and in 1861, only 7·21) per cent., with a considerable deficiency also of those between 15 and 50.

Out of the total population, numbering 99,328, we find that 59,119 are native born; Nationality. 1793 were born in the Australian Colonies; 37,145 in Great Britain and Ireland; 506 in Germany; 128 in the East Indies; 143 in the United States; and only 494 in all other countries. The native-born therefore amounted to 59·52 per cent. of the whole; the British-born to 37·40 per cent.

As regards the conjugal condition of the people, 15,665 males, and 15,498 females, Conjugal condition. were married, and 37,188 males, and 30,977 females, were unmarried. On a comparison with the numbers given by the preceding census, there appears, as we might expect, a diminution in the married, and a large increase in the unmarried. The per centage of the married was, in 1861, 35·02 of the whole population; in 1870, only 31·37. The per centage of the unmarried was, in 1861, 64·98; in 1870, 68·63. Widows and widowers are not distinguished, being, it is to be presumed, classed among the married.

In England and Wales, at the time of the last census, the number of persons who were or had been married formed 40·04 per cent. of the whole population; the celibates forming 59·96 per cent.

It appears, therefore, that in Tasmania 8·67 per cent. less of the population are married than in England.

Considering how much less severe the struggle to support existence is in this Colony than in the Old Countries, we ought to expect that in a healthy condition of things, a larger proportion of married persons should be found here than there. That such is not such the case, indicates,—what has before been shown to be the case—that there is an undue preponderance of old people and children, and a very large deficiency of persons—especially males—of the most desirable and useful age. In fact, our population consists largely of “ineffectives,”—the consumers bearing an inordinate proportion to the producers. Hence our dependence upon external sources for many commodities which ought to be produced at home: hence also, the increase of idleness and vice among the children and youths who infest the streets, and not unfrequently make their appearance at the Police Offices.

It is much to be wished, that in working out the results of the census, the occupations Occupations. of the people could have been indicated with more copiousness and minuteness, and classified more in accordance with the system adopted in other countries, but the smallness of the sum voted for taking the census, no doubt, prevented much being done in this direction. There are, consequently, but few points in which we can compare the industrial condition of our own population with that of other countries. It must suffice, therefore, to observe, that the method of classification employed gives the following millesimal proportion to the number of males of 15 years and upwards:—

	Per 1000.
Merchants and bankers.....	3·24
Legal profession.....	2·25
Medical profession.....	2·57

	Per 1000.

Laborers } Farm	327.47
} Other	117.55
Licensed victuallers*	12.96
Seafaring persons	27.92

Religion. Distributed according to its religious tenets, the whole population gives the following centesimal ratios :—

	Per Cent.
Church of England	53.41
Church of Rome	22.24
Church of Scotland	6.69
Free Church ditto	2.43
Independents	3.96
Baptists	0.94
Wesleyan Methodists	7.23
Jews	0.23
Mahomedans or Pagans	0.004
Other Sects	2.86

At the Census of 1861, the number of persons returned as belonging to the Church of England was 54.72 per cent. of the whole population; to the Church of Rome 21.60 per cent.; so that, while the Church of England has lost 1.31 per cent., the Church of Rome has gained 0.64 per cent. Similarly, the Church of Scotland will be found to have lost 0.66 per cent.; the Free Church of Scotland, 0.21 per cent.; the Jews, 0.15 per cent.; while the Independents have gained 0.35 per cent.; the Baptists, 0.02 per cent.; the Wesleyans, 0.38 per cent.; and all other denominations, 0.96 per cent.

The increase per cent. on the numbers of each denomination in 1861, was—Church of England, 7.75; Church of Rome, 13.57; Church of Scotland, 0.39; Free Church of Scotland, 1.85; Independents, 21.10; Baptists, 12.44; Wesleyans, 16.50; all other persuasions, 66.37. The Jews alone show a decrease on their own number in 1861, and they have diminished to the extent of 32.36 per cent.

The largest increase (66.37), it will be observed, is in those who are set down under the comprehensive designation of “Other Sects”; and it would have been interesting if we could have discovered what religious body it is, which, while bearing so small a proportion to other bodies, is yet showing a power of accretion so much greater than theirs.

Education. The state of Education among our population was thus represented :—

	Per Cent.
Persons who can read and write	56.32
Ditto, read only	14.04
Persons who cannot read	29.64

At the date of the previous Census, in 1861, it was found that only 42.62 per cent. could read and write; that 14.60 per cent. could read only; and that 31.75 per cent. were totally uneducated.

At that date the proportion of schoolmasters (nothing is said in the Census about schoolmistresses) to children under 15, was 1 to 115; by the last Census the number of masters and mistresses was 1 to 76.

So far as general education goes therefore, the progress made is highly satisfactory. It is, however, much to be regretted that no corresponding advance has been made in industrial or technical education—that while so much has been done by the State for the head, so little has been done for the hand.

* Licensed victuallers are stated in the census to be 408 in number; in the return at page 64 they are stated to have been 420 on 31st December last.

The number of children receiving instruction appears, from the householders' returns (which are somewhat in excess of the school returns), to be:—

	Males.	Females.
Attending public Schools.....	3760	3164
Ditto private Schools	2983	3409
Educated in Queen's Asylum	214	168
Ditto Ragged and Industrial Schools.....	232	207
Number at School	7189	7948
Ditto being educated at home.....	1787	2370
	8976	10,318
Total number of children between 2 and 15 years.....	18,594	18,344
Number of children not receiving any secular instruction.....	9618	8026

From these data we find that the proportion per cent. of children of the above age educated and uneducated was as follows:—Educated in public schools,—Males, 20·22; Females, 17·25; in private schools,—Males, 16·04; Females, 18·58; in eleemosynary schools,—Males, 2·40; Females, 2·04. The aggregate per centage attending School was therefore,—Males, 38·66; Females, 37·87; and the per centage educated at home was—Males, 9·61; Females, 12·92. The total number receiving instruction was thus—Boys, 48·27 per cent.; Girls, 50·79 per cent.: leaving 51·73 per cent. of Boys, and 49·21 per cent. of Girls, totally uneducated. There were 27·10 per cent. of children of the above-mentioned age attending Sunday Schools; but it is to be presumed that all these were also receiving secular instruction, and are therefore included in the above total of children who are being educated.

The number of occupied dwellings and stores on the date of last Census is returned as 18,048, the unoccupied, as 2146, and the unfinished as 170. The occupied were consequently in the proportion of 88·70 per cent. of the whole number; the unoccupied of 10·54 per cent.; and the unfinished of 0·83 per cent. Of the 20,364 dwellings, 7844, or 38·52 per cent. were of stone or brick, and 12,520 or 61·48 per cent., of wood, iron, or other material, 99 (inhabited by persons on the gold fields and by those employed on the Railway) being tents. Dwellings.

The proportion of empty buildings is enormously large, being about 1 in every 9½. At the Census of 1861, it was only 5·52 per cent., or about 1 in 18.

If all the 18,048 occupied dwellings were inhabited (many of them being stores were probably not), there would be 5½ inmates in each dwelling.

The increase in the number of dwellings since 1861, is 1771, or 9·52 per cent.

The number of churches, chapels, and other buildings used as places for Public Worship, as ascertained by the Census, is 316, or 1 for every 314 persons. The number of Clergymen is stated to be 129, or 1 to every 770 persons.

II. TRADE, COMMERCE, AND NAVIGATION.

The total value of goods imported into the Colony during the year 1869 is stated to have been £975,412, being greater by £130,260, or 15·41 per cent., than in 1868. Imports. The amount per head of the estimated population in 1869 was therefore £9 12s. 0¼d., against £8 7s. 10d. in 1868, and £8 13s. 11½d. in 1867.

For the last three years the Imports were—

1868.....	845,152	— 11,196
1869.....	975,412	+130,260

It will be seen from the table given below, showing the distribution of this Import trade, that the increase is to be found almost entirely in shipments from the United Kingdom.

China	6410	3602	4820

TOTAL	856,348	845,152	975,412

There is a noticeable expansion of the Import trade with Victoria. That with Queensland revived, being about the same in 1869 as it was in 1866, having fallen to zero in 1867. With South Australia it has only come into existence in the last three years, and may be expected to improve.

On the other hand, there was a decrease in our Imports from New South Wales, and the same appears to have been going on for some years, the declared value having been, in 1866, £72,844; in 1867, £49,715; in 1868, £46,099; and in 1869 only £34,764. There was also a decrease in the trade with New Zealand, and with the Mauritius. The remaining items are not of sufficient importance to require special mention.

The distribution of the Imports for the past three years, reduced to centesimal proportion, was as follows :—

COUNTRIES.	PROPORTION PER CENT. OF TOTAL IMPORTS.
	1867.	1868.	1869.
United Kingdom	35·02	31·40	41·85

The Imports at the respective Ports of Hobart Town and Launceston, for the past three years, were—

Exports.

The total value of goods exported from Tasmania in 1869 is returned as £826,932, being less by £93,888, or 10·20 per cent., than in 1868. The rate per head in 1869 was £8 2s. 9½d.; in 1868, £9 2s. 10½d.; and in 1867, £8 0s. 7d.

For the last three years, the Exports stand thus :—

1868	920,820	+ 130,326
1869	826,932	— 93,888

The causes of the decrease in 1869 will come under review presently.

The table which follows shows the distribution of the Exports in 1869 and the two previous years :—

COUNTRIES.	EXPORTS.
	1867.	1868.	1869.
United Kingdom	378,532	435,523	331,748

China	—	—	—
Guam	—	380	610
TOTAL	790,494	920,820	826,932

In the shipments to the United Kingdom there is seen to have been a decrease in 1869 of £106,775 as compared with 1868, and of £46,784 as compared with 1867. With Queensland and New Zealand the outward trade appears also, by these figures, to have considerably decreased ; while the same trade with Victoria shows a large and steady increase.

The value of Tasmanian produce exported in 1869 was 96·39 per cent. of the whole ; that of British and foreign produce exported being no more than 3·61 per cent. In 1868 the ratios were, respectively, 98·72 and 1·28 per cent.

The centesimal distribution of the Exports for the last triennium is shown below.

Countries.	Proportion per cent. of Total Exports.
	1867.	1868.	1869.

A comparison, for the last three years, of the Export Trade at the two Ports of Hobart Town and Launceston, gives the following result :—

	1867.	1868.	1869.
Hobart Town	465,990	418,810	406,960
Launceston	324,504	502,010	419,972

It has been shown that there was a decrease to the extent of £93,888 in the value of articles exported in 1869. In Wool alone, there was a difference of £95,312. The causes of this decline were two,—defect in quantity, and the fall in price. The former amounted to 529,343 pounds, and seems to have been referable to the fact that one vessel took two cargoes in 1868 instead of one, so that the decrease in quantity in 1869 may be assumed to have been only apparent. The clip of 1867–8 was valued at an average rate of 1s. 3½d. per pound ; that of 1868–9 at only 1s. 1d.

The export of Bark in 1869 was 4948½ tons, against 4579½ tons in 1868, being the maximum in the last ten years, with the exception of 1867.

That of Butter and Cheese was fairly sustained ; but there is room for a very large increase in the production of both, but especially of butter. It is notorious that in Hobart Town the supply of fresh butter constantly falls short of the demand; and there is room for a considerable increase in this direction. But, besides the home demand, there is now a good prospect of establishing a profitable trade in butter with the United Kingdom, where the present scarcity of the article, and the late discoveries of extensive adulterations, would specially dispose consumers to welcome an abundant supply of good and genuine quality. By this means, not only would our wealth be increased, but our system of agriculture would also be improved, for there is hardly any industry connected with the soil so eminently conducive to a high state of cultivation as that of dairy farming. The adoption of the American system would greatly tend to economise labor, and increase the profit, by introducing better appliances, and a more perfect system, than those now in use.

The export of Flour was somewhat under the average, but as Victoria is now nearly supplying her own wants, the decline was only such as might have been expected.

The trade in Fruit, preserved and green, was unusually brisk, the quantity having been larger than in any of the ten years from 1860 to 1869.

The export of Wheat bears a favorable comparison with the early part of the decade, that of Oats was a fair average, and that of Barley shows a decided increase on all the years of that period except 1868. In connection with the latter may be mentioned the steady increase in the production of Hops, the export having been in 1869, 210,241 pounds, against 180,977 in 1868. It may be hoped that the growth of Barley for malting purposes may be increased in a like proportion; and that the great advantage which the cooler climate of this Island offers, beyond that of any of the Australian Colonies, may be turned to account by using our home-grown Malt and Hops in the manufacture of malt liquors for supplying the wants of the neighbour Colonies.

Hides, Skins and Leather show an increase in quantity in 1869; while the value was greater in that year than in any of the past decade.

The trade in Live Stock is in a very unsatisfactory condition. The export of Horses, once a very important source of profit, has been steadily diminishing from year to year, and from 1949 in 1863, fell to 331 in 1869. The Scab Act, lately passed, will, it is supposed, have the effect of bringing into greater demand Tasmanian Sheep for breeding purposes.

It is satisfactory to find that there was a decided improvement in the state of the Whale Fisheries, the quantity of sperm oil exported in 1869 having been 684½ tons, against 517 in 1868.

The Timber trade showed signs of continued depression; while Vegetables, on the contrary, seem to have been in more active demand, the quantity having been 13,231 tons in 1869, and only 10,885 in 1868.

The total sea-borne trade in 1869, represented by the Imports and Exports, was £1,802,344, against £1,765,972 in 1868, being an increase of £36,372.

Shipping.

The returns of Shipping show that 652 vessels, of 114,410 tons burden, and manned by 7594 seamen, entered the ports of the Colony in 1869. There was a decrease upon 1868 of 2 in the number of vessels, but an increase of 3857 in the tonnage, and of 397 in the crews.

As regards nationality, 31 of these vessels were British, 615 colonial, and 6 were foreign.

The number of vessels cleared in 1869 was 664, of 112,565 tons burden, employing 7631 seamen. This gives an increase upon the corresponding numbers in 1868 of 5 vessels, 1074 tons, and 374 seamen.

Twenty-eight of these vessels belonged to the United Kingdom; 628 to the Colonies; and 8 to foreign states.

If we compare the amount of shipping at the different ports, and extend the comparison to the last three years, we shall find the following result:—

	259	20,554	268	18,915	289	18,749

In the first table, at Hobart Town there was a decrease in the number, as compared with the first year, but an increase on the tonnage: at Launceston there was an increase on both number and tonnage; at the two Sub-ports of Stanley and Wynyard there was a decrease both of numbers and tonnage. At the other two Sub-ports, Torquay and Leith, there was an increase in both. On the whole, it will be seen that the tonnage at Hobart Town has increased from 49,085 to 51,168, being less, however, than in 1868; that at Launceston it has increased from 29,945 to 44,687; and that at the Sub-ports it has very slightly increased, from 18,360 to 18,555, having fallen in 1868 to 17,966.

The tonnage of vessels entered inwards at Hobart Town in 1869 was 44·72 per cent. of the total tonnage; at Launceston, 39·06 per cent.; and at the northern sub-ports, 16·22 per cent.

The second table shows that at Hobart Town there was a decrease between the first and last years of the period, in the number from 231 to 220, and in the tonnage from 50,742 to 50,579; that at Launceston the number had increased from 141 to 155, and the tonnage from 31,458 to 43,237; and that at the sub-ports the number had increased from 259 to 289, while the tonnage had declined from 20,554 to 18,749.

The number of registered vessels in 1869 was 185, of 17,260 tons burden, against 187, of 17,477 tons burden, in 1868. Included in the number for 1869 were 11 steamers, of 3078 tons, being the same number as in 1868. Shipping registered.

The Whale Fisheries furnished employment for 17 vessels, of 4364 tons burden, manned by 415 men. They are stated to have produced 13 tuns of Black Oil, and 643 tuns of Sperm, with 8 cwt. of Whalebone, the whole valued at £48,910. There was an increase in 1869 of one vessel employed, with a tonnage of 368, and in the produce, of 42 tuns of Sperm Oil. The decrease of £3636 in the value of produce in 1869 was therefore caused by a decline in the price of Oil, and not by any remission of energy in the pursuit of whaling. Whale Fisheries.

The return of Coal raised shows an increase of 1202 tons during the last year, the increase being at Seymour, and the River Don. The mines at the latter place will Coal raised.

probably soon become more productive, as the population of that part of the Island may be expected to expand under the influences which are now at work in the north of Tasmania.

Prices of Provisions.

Comparing the prices of Provisions at Hobart Town in 1869 and in 1868, we find that Bread, Flour, and Wheat were cheaper in the former year, but that Butter, Eggs, Pork, Veal, and Tea were somewhat dearer. The price of Beef and Mutton in the market continued about the same, but the contract price was higher by 1s. 3d. per 100lbs. The contract price of fresh Butter was 1d. per lb. higher, and of Potatoes, 10d. per 100lbs. lower. The necessaries of life were therefore cheaper in 1869.

Rates of Wages.

The return of Rates of Wages presents no features sufficiently remarkable to require particular notice. Variations, as compared with the previous year, there are to a considerable extent; but they are not traceable to the operation of any general principle, or common cause. They seem to be mere local fluctuations.

III.—FINANCE.

General and Land Revenue.

The receipts and expenditure of the General Revenue and Land Fund for the years 1868 and 1869, as ascertained up to the 31 July, 1870, are shown in the following Statement, which has been furnished to me by the Treasury :—

Imperial Expenditure.

The amount disbursed by the Imperial Government through the Commissariat Department was £69,015 Os. 2d., against £63,057 19s. 8d. in the previous year. The increase occurs under the head of "Convict Service."

Course of Exchange.

The Rates of Discount and Exchange in 1869 were nearly the same as those of the preceding year. The only material difference was in the rate of Interest allowed by the Banks on fixed deposits, which in the first quarter of 1868 had ranged from 3 per cent. for three months, to 5 per cent. for 12 months, and was subsequently twice reduced by 1 per cent. on each occasion. The rate which prevailed in the latter part of 1868, prevailed also in the first half of 1869, rising by 1 per cent. in the latter half.

The average Assets and Liabilities of the Banks in 1868 and 1869 may be thus compared :—

	ASSETS.			LIABILITIES.
	Coin and Bullion.	All other Assets.	TOTAL.	Deposits.	Notes in Circulation, and all other Liabilities.	TOTAL.
	£	£	£	£	£	£
1868.....	171,382	1,172,118	1,343,500	750,754	81,541	832,295
1869.....	198,291	1,136,204	1,334,495	767,071	93,614	860,685

There was thus an increase in the Specie of 15·70 per cent., and in the Deposits of 2·17 per cent.; and an increase also on the Notes and other Liabilities of 14·80 per cent. The slight decrease on “all other Assets” was on balances due from one Bank to another.

A comparison of the returns furnished by the ‘Savings’ Banks for the same years gives these results :—

	Average Amount to Credit of Depositors.	Average Amount to Credit of Reserve Fund.	Total Amount of Deposits during the Year.	Total Amount of Repayments during the Year.
	£	£	£	£
1868.....	194,960	23,152	111,466	105,266
1869.....	212,508	24,185	112,019	105,544

The amount of Deposits had therefore increased by 9·00 per cent., and the Reserve Fund by 4·46 per cent. In 1868, the Repayments were to the Deposits in the ratio of 94·66 to 100; in 1869, they were in the ratio of 94·22 to 100.

The Bank Returns, therefore, show an improvement in the state of the Colony during the last year.

The number of Post Office Money Orders issued in 1869 is returned as 4398, against 3378 in 1868, and the amount in 1869, £16,667 10s. 1d., against £13,070 1s. 9d. in 1868. The number of Orders paid in 1869 was 3135, against 2512 in 1868, and the amounts in the two years were, £12,990 16s. 4d., and £10,719 9s. 10d., respectively.

Two other returns have been added on this occasion, from which it appears that of the whole number issued, 1537 were on places in Tasmania; 1372 were on Victoria; 756 on England and Wales; and 201 on New South Wales. The numbers on the remaining countries are so small that they need not be particularised.

Of the whole number issued, 3427 were for sums of five pounds and under; 971 were for sums between five and ten pounds.

The state of the Public Debt of the Colony on the 31st December, 1869, was as follows :—

Debentures issued under Consolidation Act, payable in London	700,000
Ditto ditto, payable in Hobart Town.....	448,000
Total amount of Debentures issued	1,148,000
Debentures authorised by Loans Acts, but not issued, on 31 December, 1869.....	201,000
Deduct amount of Debentures authorised for the purpose of redeeming other Debentures falling due in 1870	35,000
	£166,000

Of the total amount of Debentures issued, namely £1,148,000, the sum of £300,000 was on account of the Launceston and Western Railway Company, who repaid to the Treasury the interest for the year on that sum; making the total indebtedness of the Colony, for Government purposes only, on 31 December last, £848,000.

Included in that amount was a sum of £100,000 for the commutation of the annual grant of £15,000 hitherto made under the Constitutional Act for the maintenance of Public Worship.

Of the amount of £201,000 for which loans were authorised on 31 December last, but not actually contracted, £100,000 were for the completion of the Launceston and Western Railway Company, under the same conditions as to payment and guarantee of interest as in the case of the former loan.

Gold Mining.

The return of Gold produced in 1869 contrasts very unfavorably with that of the preceding year, only 137 ozs. 2 dwts. having (so far as was known) been obtained, against 245 ozs. 7 dwts. in 1868; the number of men employed—all in alluvial operations—being only 15 against 48 in 1868. None of the Quartz Crushing Companies was at work in 1869.

Much as this falling off is to be regretted, it gives no occasion for discouragement. New gold fields have been discovered at Waterhouse, West Tamar, and other places, and Companies have been formed, and have now abundantly proved that mining operations may be carried on with profit in Tasmania. It may safely be predicted that in the latter part of the present year, or early in the next, this Colony will take an important place among gold-producing countries; while the deposits of Silver and other ores on the northern Coast will also contribute largely to the increase of its wealth. It may be confidently stated that we have abundant mineral treasures in many parts of the Colony, which only require the judicious employment of capital to develop them.

Much undeserved discredit has been thrown upon the pursuit of Gold-mining in this Colony, in consequence of the unsound way in which it has in too many instances been attempted to carry it on. Companies have been projected more, as it would seem, as a means of selling shares, than with a view to the legitimate employment of capital; and thus, while many companies exist in name, but few have shown any signs of actual vitality. In a little more time, however, these "bubble" companies will be weeded out; and it will come to be generally understood, that gold-mining, like every other industry, cannot be profitably carried on without ample capital, and patient perseverance.

IV.—ESTABLISHMENTS OR INSTITUTIONS MAINTAINED OR ASSISTED BY GOVERNMENT.

Post Office.

The Revenue of the Post Office for the year 1869 was £12,388 11s. 1d.; the Expenditure, £13,598 7s. 4d. In 1868 the Revenue and Expenditure were £11,774 11s. 1d. and £13,663 7s. 4d., respectively.

The number of Letters which passed through the Post Offices at Hobart Town and Launceston in those years was—

1868.....	67,034	27,578	94,612
1869.....	73,555	26,477	100,032

The Newspapers were as follows :—

	Inland.	Ship.	TOTAL.	Inland.	Ship.	TOTAL.
1868.....	130,893	183,480	314,373	603,432	197,183	800,615
1869.....	142,859	194,179	337,038	678,288	193,531	871,819

On Letters there was thus an increase in every case, except on Town and District, franked, which show a slight decrease.

On Ship Newspapers, despatched, there was a decrease of 3652; on all other newspapers a considerable increase.

The number of Post Offices was increased in 1869 by 10; the persons employed, by 12; and the miles of post roads, by 200.

The number and value of Messages transmitted by the Electric Telegraph in 1868 and 1869 are shown below :—

Electric Tele-

1869.....	6513	6467	1000	13,980	2155	11	0

The number had thus more than doubled. The decrease in value of the messages is accounted for by the fact of the charges having been reduced in the early part of the year from a minimum of 2s. 6d. for ten words, to a uniform rate of 1s. for ten words throughout the Colony. On the 2nd May the Submarine Telegraph, establishing communication between Tasmania and the Continent of Australia, was formally opened.

The return of the Expenditure on account of the Salmon Breeding Establishment is of little importance in itself; but the following statement, furnished to me by the Secretary of the Salmon Commissioners, of Ova and young Fry distributed during the year, will be read with interest beyond this Colony :—

Boards of Works.

The sum at the disposal of the various Boards of Works in the year 1869 was £17,624 7s. 7d., of which £8533 16s. 10d. were expended, leaving a balance on the 31st December of £9090 10s. 9d.

Road Trusts.

The Return relating to the Road Trusts shows a total of 2739½ miles of Road under their control; of receipts from Rates, Tolls, &c., £12,243 6s. 4½d.; from Government, £5142 9s. 1d.; of expenditure on Salaries, £1033 4s. 10d.,—on Roads, &c., £15,149 12s. 0d.,—on other matters, £2013 16s. 3d. The Rates for Road purposes made in the different districts ranged between threepence and one shilling in the pound.

Municipalities.

The Municipalities of Hobart Town and Launceston comprise an area of 4710 acres, with a population, according to the late census, of 29,760. The density of population in Hobart Town, is 15·03 persons to a square acre; in Launceston, 3·10 persons to the acre. The Rates in Hobart Town amounted to 3s. 0½d. in the pound; in Launceston, to 3s. 3d. The aggregate net annual value of property was £158,506; the aggregate amount received from Rates, £23,075 11s.; from Government, £1517 6s. 4d.; from Fees, Fines, Licences, &c., £1684 16s. 1d.; and from all other sources, £5358 6s. 10d. The expenditure in Salaries was £3035 6s. 1d.; for Police, £3447 4s. 7d.; for other purposes, £25,190 17s. 10d.

In the Rural Municipalities the total area was 7,973,127 square acres; the net annual value of Rateable property, £354,448 14s., (the Rates averaging from sixpence to thirteen pence in the pound); the amount derived from Rates, £12,209 16s. 3½d.; from Government, £3340 18s. 11d.; from Fees, Licences, &c., £2319 19s. 9d.; and from all other sources, £2178 12s. 4½d. The total expenditure was—on Salaries, (not including Police), £4154 4s. 3d.; on Police, £13,245 13s. 9d.; Miscellaneous, £4466 1s. 4½d.

V.—CROWN LAND, AGRICULTURE, AND LIVE STOCK.

Crown Lands.

The area of Crown Land leased in 1869 is returned as 1,441,413 acres, against 1,493,368 in 1868; the rental in 1869 being £7307 19s. 2d., against 7881 1s. in 1868.

The total acreage of Land sold and the receipts therefrom in those years was—

* Net Cash Expenditure, not crediting milk supplied to other Government Establishments.

The smaller lots, up to 100 acres, show a considerable increase, while those of 100 acres and upwards are seen to have decreased to a large extent, the causes being, doubtless, the prevalence of fluke in sheep, and the low price of wool.

A new feature in this part of the Statistics for 1869 is the return relating to Crown Lands taken up for Gold Mining purposes, which shows that there were issued in that year 1152 Miners' Rights; and that there were received, 118 applications for Mining Leases, and 16 for Prospecting Claims; the amount received by the Surveyor-General, on these accounts, being £2891 17s. 1d.

In the Statistics for 1868, the Agricultural Returns, having been delayed beyond the proper time, were published as an Appendix. In the present volume they are inserted in their proper places. Endeavors were made this year to obtain the returns with more expedition; and with this view, the Collectors were informed that they were expected to send them in by the 30th April, and that in case of delay in forwarding, or of carelessness in compiling them, a proportionate deduction would be made from the amount ordinarily allowed. In most instances this intimation had a beneficial result; but the defects of the present system of collection in the Municipalities, being a necessary consequence of divided accountability, appear to be insuperable, except by a radical change. Agriculture.

The total area of land in cultivation in 1869-70 amounts to 368,484 acres, against 287,319 in 1868-9. The acreage in the different crops in those years was—

Crops.	1868-9.	1869-70.	Crops.	1868-9.	1869-70.

			All other Cultivated Land....	41,688	55,566

The Acreage under rotation of Crops was stated to have been in 1869-70, 24,690; Acreage. in 1868-9, 16,140. It is satisfactory to see that increased attention is being given by the agriculturists to the necessity of a proper change in the crops. Such improvements of system will be slow, and, at first, hardly perceptible; but the benefits of rotation, under drainage, machinery, and manures, are beginning to be acknowledged, and will slowly, but surely, become more generally adopted.

The acreage under Wheat in 1869-70 was nearly the same as in the previous year; in Barley land there was an increase of 1076 acres; in Oat land an increase of 5862 acres; in land in Pease, Beans, and Tares, and Root Crops a slight increase; in the area under Potatoes, an increase of 1313 acres; under Artificial Grasses (Seed), an increase of 498 acres; under Hay, an increase of 1587 acres; under Tobacco, an increase of 56 acres. There are also increases on land in Green Forage; in permanent Artificial Grasses; and in "all other cultivated land." There are small decreases on Gardens and Orchards, and on bare fallows.

On the area in Hops there is an increase of 85 acres, or 17·86 per cent. In 1868-9 there were only nine districts in which Hops were grown; in 1869-70 there were fourteen.

At Deloraine, 7 acres are returned as having been sown with Flax, and the Collector states that "many persons grow small quantities of it;" but, it would seem, only for the sake of the seed.

Produce.

It is scarcely necessary to mention here the gross produce of the different Crops: a better knowledge of the yield will be gained by comparing the average produce in the last two years, taken in connection with the increases or decreases given above.

CROPS.	AVERAGE YIELD.		CROPS.	AVERAGE YIELD.

Potatoes, tons	3·43	3·54	Tobacco, lbs.	1679	1985
Turnips, ditto	5·53	4·71

It will be seen that on all the principal crops there was an increase—in some cases very considerable—in the latter year. Hops are not included in the above table, because no fair comparison can as yet be drawn on the average for all the Districts, inasmuch as the greater part of the plantations are only recent, and have not come into full bearing. At New Norfolk, the oldest Hop-growing District, the average per acre increased from 607·96 lbs. in 1868-9 to 836·45 lbs. in 1869-70; in the District of Hobart it increased from 148 lbs. to 611·94 lbs.; at Brighton, from 250 lbs. to 400 lbs.; at Glenorchy, from 154·80 lbs. to 451·61 lbs.; and so with other districts. The gross yield increased from 242·268 lbs. to 415·064 lbs., or 71·32 per cent.

The prices of the principal agricultural products were lower in 1869-70 than in the previous year.

As regards Agricultural Machinery, there is an increase of 16 Steam Engines, of 21 Clod Crushers, of 2 Chaff Cutters (worked by steam); of 34 Cultivators (worked by horses); of 2 Corn Crushers; of 8 Hay Elevators; of 27 Horse Hoes, Grubbers, and Scarifiers; of 2 Irrigation Works; of 9 Mowing Machines; of 1 Sub-soil Plough; of 3 Reaping Machines; of 2 Seed Drills (horse); while there is a decrease of 3 Threshing Machines; of 2 Hay Rakes; and of 2 Sowing Machines.

On the whole, the results of these returns are favourable; and the report of the Collector at Westbury gives a very encouraging account of the progress of improvement in that district. It may be hoped that other districts will not be slow to follow so good an example.

Live Stock.

The returns of Live Stock for the year ended March 31, 1870, show a total of Horses, 22,583, being an increase of 71; Horned Cattle, 95,097,—a decrease of 10,353; Sheep, 1,531,187,—a decrease of 184,430; Goats, 2662,—a decrease of 36; Mules, 4,—an increase of 1; Asses, 5,—an increase of 2; and Pigs, 49,524,—a decrease of 5698.

The number of persons who washed their sheep in warm water was—in 1868-9, 74; in 1869-70, 49. The number who sheared in the grease was,—in 1868-9, 244; in 1869-70, 348. If these numbers are correct, it would seem that the use of warm water was regarded with less favor than in the previous year.

The Exports of Live Stock in 1869 were—Horses, 331; Horned Cattle, 1; Sheep, 2890; Pigs, 2190.

The Return of Live Stock imported and slaughtered, furnished by the Municipal Inspectors of Stock at Hobart Town and Launceston, show that 86,886 Sheep and Lambs were slaughtered in 1869, against 76,512 in 1868; that of these numbers, 24,856 were imported in 1869, and 44,732 in 1868; that 7833 Horned Cattle were slaughtered in 1869, and 6304 in 1868, the numbers imported having been 1657, and 2427, respectively; and that 3581 Pigs were slaughtered in 1869, and 3011 in 1868, 536 having been imported in 1868, and none in 1869.

These figures show a general decrease in the importations. They also show—what I predicted last year—that what some of the agriculturists were desirous of bringing about by means of protective duties, which would have been, directly, pernicious to the consumer, and indirectly so to themselves, has now resulted from the more healthy operation of natural laws.

VI. LAW, CRIME, &c.

The number of persons committed for trial in 1869 was 155, against 178 in 1868,—a decrease of 6·74 per cent. Committals.

In the Superior Courts there were 112 persons tried, of whom 81 were convicted, and 31 acquitted. The corresponding numbers in 1868 were—tried, 139; convicted, 99; acquitted, 40. Of the number tried in 1869, 56 were arraigned of offences against the person; 65 of offences against property: in 1868, 48 were charged with offences against the person; 91 with offences against property. Trials in Superior Courts.

In each of the last two years, there was one Criminal executed. Executions.

The Writs of Summons issued by the Supreme Court in 1869 were 356; the Civil Cases tried, 28, being an increase of 7 and 13 respectively. Under The Small Debts Act the business of the Court somewhat decreased; the number of Summonses issued being less by 8, and the number of Cases tried less by 5, than in the previous year. The amount of litigation in the inferior Courts, in the years 1868 and 1869, is shown below. Litigation.

The increase is probably due to the passing of an Act of last Session, repealing a provision in The Small Debts Act whereby the Officers of any Court were prohibited from preparing documents required by the Act,—a provision which was found materially to impede its working. Small Debts.

The Offences dealt with by Magistrates in the last two years were—

Magisterial jurisdiction.

The whole number of Cases coming under the cognizance of Magistrates is thus shown to have been—in 1868, 7474; in 1869, 7306; being a decrease of 168.

The number of Probates granted in 1869 was 62, against 67 in 1868; the value of the property being sworn under £65,091, against £173,606 in 1868. Letters of Administration were granted in 22 cases, against 19 in 1868, the value of the property being—in 1869, £18,866; in 1868, £20,250. Probates, &c. granted.

In 1869, 7 persons declared themselves insolvent, and 68 were declared so by their Creditors: in 1868, the numbers were 2 and 61 respectively. The aggregate amount of Assets was,—in 1869, £22,166 6s. 6d.; in 1868, £32,270 5s. 1d.: the aggregate Liabilities were—in 1869, £159,572 6s. 2d.; in 1868, £50,487 18s. 5d. Insolvencies.

Lands' Titles Office.

The return of business in the Lands' Titles Office shows a total of 506 transactions during the year 1869, the value of the property dealt with being £120,794, and the area 63,385*a.* 1*r.* 27²/₅*p.* In 1868 the number of transactions was 584, the value £138,676, and the area 67,980*a.* 2*r.* 26¹/₆*p.*

Grant Deeds.

The number of Grant Deeds enrolled in the Supreme Court was—in 1868, 434; in 1869, 419.

Inquests.

Inquests on persons were held in 1869 on 118 males, and 40 females, being 12 less than in 1868.

VII.—EDUCATION, RELIGION, &c.

Public Schools.

The Returns relating to Public Schools in 1869 have been thrown into a more compendious form, and one better suited for statistical purposes than heretofore. They exhibit, compared with the Return for 1868, the following results:—

Year.	No. of distinct Scholars on the Rolls.	Average No. on Rolls.	Average Daily Attendance.	No. entered during Year.	No. left during Year.	Teachers & Assistant Teachers.	Pupil Teachers & Monitors.

1869....	9316	5992	4511	3872	2688	187	31

The total expenditure was—in 1869, £11,564 6*s.* 5*d.*; in 1868, £10,978 7*s.* 11*d.* The amount received for School Fees was—1869, £3931 3*s.* 8*d.*; in 1868, £3905 7*s.* 7*d.* The amount of Government aid for each Scholar in daily attendance, was—in 1869, £2 12*s.* 4*d.*; in 1868, £2 11*s.* 10¹/₄*d.*

The state of Education among the population generally has already been dealt with in speaking of the results of the late Census.

Besides the cost of the Public Schools, there were expended in 1869 the further sums of £978 11*s.* 1*d.* by the Council of Education, and of £566 18*s.* 8*d.* for School Exhibitions.

Religion.

The Religion of the people is shown by the Census Tables published as an Appendix to this volume, and has been summarised in an earlier part of the present Report. The Return showing the Receipts and Expenditure, and other particulars of the different Churches, also the Sunday School Return, have been omitted on this occasion, as it has in former years been found impossible to obtain from the various bodies full and correct information; and any difficulties which were then felt are now rendered very much greater by the passing of the State Aid Commutation Act, which has freed the State-paid Churches from all external control.

Friendly Societies.

There were in 1869, 17 Friendly Societies which filed their Returns as required by the Friendly Societies Act, and in 1868, 20 such Societies. The number of Members, Receipts, &c., in those years, are shown below.

VIII.—VITAL STATISTICS.

In 1869 there were registered 2859 births, of which 1445 were males, and 1414 females. Compared with the previous year, there was a decrease of 131. Births.

The birth-rate in 1869,—calculated on the basis of the Census of February last, which is the nearest approximation obtainable to the true population—was 28·78 per 1000. The rate in 1868 was, according to the estimated population, 29·69, and in 1867, 30·18; but these were somewhat less than the true rates, if the population in those years were over-estimated, as it was found to be in 1869.

The proportion of male to female children born in 1869 was as 102·19 to 100, being less than in 1868 or 1867, when it was as 104·51 and 102·66 to 100, respectively.

The deaths in 1869 (including 3 which occurred beyond the limits of the Colony) were 1335, of which 831 were males, and 504, females. Six convicts died at Port Arthur, and one criminal was executed, making the true total 1442, which is at the rate of 14·52 per 1000 of the population by last Census. In 1868, the death-rate was calculated to be 14·61; in 1857, 14·36 per 1000. Making allowance for excess in the estimated population, the death-rate was about the same as in 1868. The deaths of males were to the deaths of females in the ratio of 164·88 to 100; having been 154·5 in 1868. Deaths.

I have not leisure to analyse these Returns more fully, and must touch upon those that remain as briefly as possible.

Observations taken at Hobart Town showed that the mean height of the barometer in 1869 was 29·875, or 0·068 above the average for 25 years; the mean temperature 56·10, or 1·65 above the average; the mean diurnal range 17·88, or 0·02 in excess; the mean solar intensity 93·42, or 0·43 in excess; the mean terrestrial radiation 43·84, or 0·98 in excess; mean dew point, 45·85, or 0·40 above the average; humidity of the air 0·72, or 0·03 below it; elastic force of vapor 0·325, or 0·01 in excess. The total rain-fall was 23·87 inches, or 1·22 inches above the average; the number of days on which rain fell being 130, or 15·27 below the average. Ozone showed a mean of 7·20, or 0·02 in excess. The north-westerly wind prevailed through ten months in the year (somewhat more than the average), and the total wind-force was 521·66 lbs., giving a monthly average of 43·47 lbs., or 19·51 lbs. below the mean for the 25 years. Meteorology.

In the Hospitals (not including that for the Insane) 1620 cases of disease were treated in 1869, the deaths being 157, or in the proportion of 9·69 per cent. Calculated on the "admissions," the proportion would be 12·04 per cent. In 1868 the number of cases was 1894, and of deaths 200, or 10·56 per cent. At the Queen's Asylum there were 2 deaths—the only ones in four years. Diseases and Deaths in Charitable Institutions.

The number of marriages in 1869 was 651, against 654 in 1868; the rate per 1000 being,—in 1869, 6·55; in 1868, 6·49. Marriages.

The Returns of Vaccination performed in 1869 by the Medical Officers of the different Hospitals and of the Queen's Asylum show that the operation was performed upon 937 persons, 515 cases being reported to have been entirely successful. In the preceding year only 95 persons were vaccinated. The increase in 1869 was caused by the introduction of small-pox into Melbourne at the beginning of the year. Vaccinations.

IX.—MISCELLANEOUS.

The only Returns under this division which require any notice are those relating to the franchise. Political Franchise.

An alteration has been made in the mode of compiling the present Returns, with a view to ensure greater accuracy. The Courts of Revision being held in January or February of each year, I have thought it better to embody the results of the last settlement of the Rolls, even though it may not take place until the beginning of the year following that with which each volume purports to deal, than to continue to adhere to an arrangement which, though more strictly in accordance with method, experience has proved to fail in obtaining thoroughly correct information.

The number of Electors for the Legislative Council on the Rolls before the last revision was 2123: 179 were struck off on account of death and other causes, and 147 were added; leaving 2091 Electors qualified to vote in the present year.

For the House of Assembly, the number of Electors was;—before the revision, 11,394; struck off, 1821; added, 1598; leaving 11,171 on the Rolls as revised. The number of males of the age of 20 and upwards (the age of a qualified Elector being 21, there will be an excess of those between 20 and 21), is shown by the Census to be 27,189, from which it follows that 41·09 per cent of the males of this age are qualified to vote for the House of Assembly.

Each Member of the House of Assembly represents 372 Electors, or 3311 units of population: each Member of the Legislative Council represents 139 Electors, or 6622 units of population.

To sum up the results of the returns now before us: the Import trade improved; the Export, in the face of the low price of wool, and the embarrassing system of Customs Duties now in vogue in all these Colonies, did not decline, and in some cases sensibly increased; a larger amount of Shipping entered our ports; an increased quantity of Coal was raised; the cost of the necessaries of life fell less heavily on the consumer; the Public Treasury was enabled to meet its engagements without difficulty, and investors showed their confidence in the soundness of our credit by giving a higher price for our Public Securities; the business of the Banks increased; new facilities of commercial intercourse with the Australian Continent were afforded by the laying down of the Telegraphic Cable across the Straits; the Launceston and Western Railway was advancing towards completion; discoveries of precious metals were made over a large extent of country; the state of agriculture showed some improvement; and the social condition of the people, so far as it is indicated by the statistics of crime, was satisfactory. But, on the other hand, the Colony was suffering from the want of that which is the life-blood of a nation,—labour, of sufficient quantity, and of suitable quality,—and manufactures, in consequence, did not advance; notwithstanding the existence of a law rendering education compulsory, only one-half of the children were receiving school instruction, but a very small proportion of the other half, it is to be feared, being trained in any industrial pursuit; the settlement of the lands languished; and the revenue from the Crown Estate continued to decline.

While, therefore, there is something on which to congratulate ourselves, there is also much need of strenuous exertion, and prudent enterprise on the part of the people, and of adopting every available means for promoting the improvement of the material and social condition of the Colony.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

E. C. NOWELL, Government Statistician.

32 Vict. No. 2.	And where any lands or other property of different tenures or holdings, or held under different titles, contracted to be sold at one entire price for the whole, shall be conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts or parcels by different deeds or instruments, the purchase or consideration money shall be divided and apportioned in such manner as the parties shall think fit, so that a distinct price or consideration for each separate part or parcel may be set forth in or upon the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance relating thereto, which shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty in respect of the price or consideration money therein set forth. And where any lands or other property contracted to be purchased by two or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others, at one entire price for the whole, is conveyed in parts or parcels by separate deeds or instruments to the persons for whom the same is purchased for distinct parts or shares of the purchase money, the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance of each separate part or parcel, shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty in respect of the sum of money therein specified as the consideration for the same. But if separate parts or parcels of such lands or other property are conveyed to or to the use of or in trust for different persons in and by one and the same deed or instrument, then such deed or instrument shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty, in respect of the aggregate amount of the purchase or consideration moneys therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid for the lands or property thereby conveyed. And where any person having contracted for the purchase of any lands or other property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, shall contract to sell to any other person, and the same shall in consequence be conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser, the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty in respect of the purchase or consideration money therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid by the sub-purchaser. And where any person having contracted for the purchase of any lands or other property, but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, shall contract to sell the whole or any part or parts thereof to any other person or persons, and the same shall in consequence be conveyed by the original seller to different persons in parts or parcels, the principal or only deed or instrument of conveyance of each part or parcel thereof shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty in respect only of the purchase or consideration money which shall be therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid for the same by the person or persons to whom or to whose use or in trust for whom the conveyance shall be made without regard to the amount of the original purchase money. And in all cases of such sub-sales as aforesaid the sub-purchasers, and the persons immediately selling to them, shall be deemed and taken to be the purchasers and sellers within the intent and meaning of the provisions of this Act relating to the ad valorem duties on conveyances on the sale of property thereby imposed. But where any sub-purchaser shall take an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which shall be chargeable with the said ad valorem duty in respect of the purchase or consideration money paid or agreed to be paid by him, and shall be duly stamped accordingly, any deed or instrument of conveyance to be afterwards made to him of the property in question by the original seller shall be exempted from the said ad valorem duty, and be charged only with the ordinary duty on deeds or instruments of the same kind, not upon a sale. And where any lands or other property separately contracted to be purchased of different persons at separate and distinct prices shall be conveyed to the purchaser, or as he shall direct in and by one and the same deed or instrument, such deed or instrument shall be charged with the said ad valorem duty in respect of the aggregate amount of the purchase or consideration moneys therein mentioned to be paid or agreed to be paid for the same. And where any lands or other property shall be sold and conveyed in consideration wholly or in part of any sum of money charged thereon by way of mortgage or otherwise, and then due and owing to the purchaser, or shall be sold and conveyed subject to any mortgage, bond, or other debt, or to any gross or entire sum of money to be afterwards paid by the purchaser, such sum of money or debt shall be deemed the purchase or consideration money, or part of the purchase or consideration money, as the case may be, in respect whereof the said ad valorem duty is to be paid. And to prevent doubts respecting what shall be deemed the principal deed or instrument of conveyance in certain cases, it is hereby declared :	32 Vict. No. 2.	1 Oct. 1868.

And where there shall be several deeds, instruments, or writings for completing the title to the property sold, such of them as are not liable to the said ad valorem duty shall be charged with the duty to which the same may be liable under any general or particular description of such deeds, instruments, or writings contained in this or any other Act imposing Stamp Duties. ^a Boundaries altered, January 5, 1869. ^b For half year to 30 June. ^c For half year from July to December. ^d This balance does not agree with that given in last Return. The discrepancy is explained to have been caused by a change in the mode of keeping the Accounts. ^e The difference between this balance and that given in last Return is stated to have been caused by the control of the Roads having been transferred to the Road Trust. ^f Includes £336 received from Government for repairs and additions to Police Buildings at Carrick.

Where two Rates are shown as made on the same day, the first is on private property, the second on leased Crown Land.

The balances for and against the Municipalities are indicated by the signs plus (+) and minus (—) respectively.

The Area was supplied by the Survey Department. The Population is not inserted in the present Return, as the Census of 1870 does not afford the means of ascertaining it.

MEMO.—The Returns hitherto furnished of the Area of Crown Land under Rental have, for many years past,* shown a considerable excess beyond the actual quantity under lease, which has only lately been discovered, since the last Returns were prepared. It is difficult now to account for the very great discrepancy; but it may have arisen, in some measure, from the fact that, after the annual Returns are made up, lists of persons who have failed to pay rent are received from the Colonial Treasury, and they have not been taken into consideration when the Returns for the following year have been prepared.

* Up to, and including, 1866.

Hobart Town, October 31st, 1870.

NOTE.—This Return results from an Order of the House of Assembly : it comprises all persons of the age of 16 years and upwards described in the Census Returns as having any special occupation.

In a few instances, such as Carpenters, Painters, Shoemakers, Gardeners, &c., the number of Master Tradesmen may be somewhat in excess of the real number as compared with Journeymen Tradesmen, but this arises from the impracticability of distinguishing in many cases between the two classes : in all cases where they could be ascertained to be Journeymen they have been so classified.

APPENDIX B.

REPORTS, or Extracts from Reports, of Collectors of Agricultural Statistics, 1869-70.

1. BOTHWELL.

COMPARED with the year ended 31st March, 1869, a marked improvement in cereal crops, hay, &c., both as to area and yield, more especially in wheat, is observable.

The yield of fruit has been very indifferent, owing to the severe spring and early summer frosts in this locality.

A slight falling off in the number of sheep may be attributed to losses from fluke and reduction of stock by sale, which were not compensated for by the additions made during the lambing season.

The prospects both of pastoral and agricultural pursuits for the present year are, so far, encouraging.

H. G. QUODLING, Collector of Agricultural Statistics, Bothwell.

2. CAMPBELL TOWN.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith returns of Stock, Crop, &c., as collected by me within this Municipality, and beg to inform you that the following improvements have taken place during the year ending 31st March, 1870.

1st. Erection of new stables, cow-shed, sheep dip, and cold-water wash on the estate of Mr. C. Gatenby.

2nd. Erection of a hot-water wash, barn, and shearing shed on the estate of C. Headlam, Esquire.

3rd. Erection of a cold-water wash on the estate of Mr. E. A. Harrison.

4th. Erection of a hot-water wash on the estate of Mr. John Taylor.

The returns of wheat and other crops are, I think, something less than the previous year, which may be attributed to the dryness of the past season in this District.

JOHN B. CHAMBERS, Collector.

3. CLARENCE.

THERE are no particular features in the mode of agriculture or the results produced to call for any remarks in this report from the Collector, as compared to that of last year. The absence of good labour appears to be the great drawback to the farmer, for what few labouring men there are in the District, most of them are married men, and the wages that they necessarily require to support their families are more than the farmer can afford to give them.

Threshing machines are a great boon to the farmer, nearly all the grain in the District being now threshed by the machine, the great advantage being in the expeditious manner in which it is done. The great evil arising from the existence of the American Thistle is being very seriously felt, and unless prompt action is taken by the Government in reference to it, scores of acres of the best soil will be worthless.

F. PEDDER.

4. DELORAINÉ.

I HAVE the honor to forward the Agricultural and Stock Return for the year ending 31st March, 1870.

In order to make the Return as correct as possible, I have waited until the threshing was completed to obtain the requisite information; and as the harvest is considerably later in this district than in other parts of the country, I was unable to complete the Return sooner.

You will observe the average yield of wheat this year is higher than last; and, although not quite so good as I anticipated, is, I believe, correct. The same remark applies to the oat crop, which would, I think, have been much better than it was, but unfortunately many of the farms in this district have become overrun with thistles, which has certainly caused the yield of grain per acre to be less than it otherwise would have been.

I have this year added "linseed" to the return of crops, as many persons grow small quantities of it.

In the return of agricultural implements you will observe there are three (3) reaping machines, two of which have been in the District some few years, but have not been in use. A new reaping machine has been in operation this year and has been found to answer very well, but having been only purchased late in the harvest it only cut about 200 acres of oats.

EDWARD WILLIAMS.

5. EVANDALE.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith the Agricultural and Live Stock Returns for this Municipality. They are a few days later than the time named for their completion, but this has been occasioned by no fault of mine, but solely from the many instances which have occurred of my not being able to get trustworthy information on my visits, and consequently I have had to go several times to the same farms through the absence of the occupiers. I can, however, say that I believe them to be as correct as it is possible to get them.

You will perceive that the area of land sown with the staple commodities of wheat, barley, oats, and hay, have all increased. The crops are not very good, and the low prices ruling are causing some, and I fear will cause more, insolvencies amongst the tenant farmers, whose prospects cannot be said to be very bright.

R. MARRIOTT, Superintendent of Police.

6. FINGAL.

I HAVE the honor to enclose you the Stock, Crop, Agricultural, and Machinery Returns, and hope they may be satisfactory. I believe them to be nearly correct, and rather under than over estimated. I found many unwilling to give a true return, alleging for a reason that they thought their rates would be increased if the returns of their crop were good.

However, I explained the matter to them and I hope satisfied them. There is not very much change in agricultural prospects since last year, but I believe next year will show an improvement. If a return of butter and cheese were added to the Returns it would be as well, as a large quantity of both articles are produced in the District. I have made a rough calculation of cheese made this season, and find it to be over 120 tons. The amount of butter made I have not ascertained, but I know it to be small in proportion to the cheese, as within the last two years more have turned their attention to the manufacture of cheese as yielding a better profit.

FRED. T. RANSOM.

7. GEORGE TOWN.

I HAVE the honor to forward you the Agricultural and Live Stock Returns for the Police District of George Town for the year ending 31st March, 1870; and to report for your information that the cereals show a decrease in acreage, but an increase in produce, as compared with the Returns of last year.

Referring to the live stock, horned cattle have improved generally throughout the District. Sheep are still decreasing (more especially in the vicinity of Waterhouse and Cape Portland) from the effects of fluke.

T. H. SIMPSON, D.C.

8. GLAMORGAN.

HEREWITH you will please receive the Agricultural and Live Stock Returns for the District of Glamorgan.

As I did not collect the Returns for 1869, I am not in a position to state whether any improvements have taken place during the year.

The low average per acre of produce of wheat is to be attributed to the early crops being blighted by hot winds, and the late crops being in a great measure destroyed with the red rust.

The stock, on the whole, are in a very sound and healthy condition, and no complaints are heard as to the prevalence of the fluke among the sheep.

ALFRED JNO. AMOS, Collector Agricultural Statistics.

9. GREEN PONDS.

UNDER "other Cultivated Land" I have included all land that has been cropped during the past year with crops for which there are no headings—78½ acres—and also all land which has been cultivated and is enclosed in paddocks, but which has been used for the last few years for feed, and to give it rest before being cropped again—3590 acres. If I have made an error in adding the last lot I will alter it if you will send me another Form B.

The Wheat, Oat, and Barley crops would have been better in this Municipality but for the rabbits, grubs, blight, and rust.

I have delayed making out these Returns until the last in order that I might return a more correct account of the grain by waiting for the information until the grain was threshed out by the threshing machines.

THOMAS W. STANWIX, Superintendent Police, Green Ponds.

10. HOBART—KINGSTON PORTION.

DAIRY farming and fruit growing form the chief means of livelihood of the farmers. The former is in a healthy state, but the herds are not greatly increasing. There has been a falling off this year of one-half the apple crop, believed to be occasioned principally by fire blight. Raspberries are profitably cultivated to a considerable extent by the smaller farmers. The locality generally is too wild and cold for a sheep country, although the return shows an increase in the number of sheep.

E. INNES, C. D. C., Kingston Police.

11. HORTON.

I BEG to forward herewith Agricultural and Live Stock Statistics for the Police District of Horton for the year 1869–70.

You will perceive that agricultural pursuits in this District are steadily progressing; and that there is a much larger amount of produce than last return, particularly in Potatoes, which will yield even a greater return than the average given by the farmers.

There is no material difference in the Live Stock Return compared with last year.

JOHN LAMBERT.

12. LONGFORD.

I ENCLOSE herewith the Stock and Crop Returns, which I believe are correct. The prospects in this District for the farmer are good, and the crops this last year have been very good, more particularly as regards the yield of Wheat.

J. PERKINS.

13. NEW NORFOLK.

IN compliance with your Memorandum, No. 4, of 8th March, 1870, in forwarding the accompanied Agricultural and Live Stock Returns for the year ending 31st March, 1870,

I have the honor to report that the Hop-growing is the principal and most important culture in this District. By the Hop Return it will be seen that the acreage and total produce in this District have been augmented since last returns. Three new large and substantial hop-kilns have been erected during the year, and more are on the point of erection. Some of the hop plantations have suffered more or less from the insect commonly called the red spider.

The potato crops have suffered in many localities from the grub.

The wheat, barley, and oat crops have suffered from attacks of the caterpillar, more or less.

The cause of so few pears in the District has been owing to the early frost when the trees were in blossom.

I have nothing further of importance to report, except that some of the sheeppholders speak of giving up sheep farming, owing to the recent Scab Act.

JOHN EVENDEN, Collector.

14. OATLANDS.

AGRICULTURE is being prosecuted generally with greater vigor. This is shown by the increased area, viz., 1281 acres of land, being cropped during the past season.

This area is made up of 568 acres of new land brought into cultivation; the balance, 713 acres, consisting of 409 acres of land which were fallow last year, and 304 acres of old land brought under crop again.

There is in the District generally a greater disposition on the part of the landowners to turn their attention to the production of grain, and also to let their agricultural lands in small quantities to suitable persons.

In pastoral pursuits there is to be noticed an increased disposition to use warm water to wash sheep; also that the farmers are turning their attention more to the fattening of cattle, which are, in some of the more marshy parts especially, displacing a great number of sheep.

In all my intercourse with the flock-holders I have not heard one instance of fluke being present.

WILLIAM EXTON, Superintendent of Police.

15. RICHMOND.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith the Agricultural and Live Stock Returns for this District for the year ending 31st March, 1870.

In doing so, I beg to observe that the prospects of the farmer last year were very encouraging, and a much larger yield than usual was anticipated until the caterpillar made its appearance, and subsequently the rust, which in many instances completely destroyed large fields of corn; in other cases the corn crops were cut for hay, the area and yield of which will amply prove the facts I have reported. The pastoral pursuits last year were much the same as usual: the graziers scarcely realised paying prices for their fat stock, but the flock-master received a slight advance in the price of wool.

It is impossible at present to offer any opinion upon the prospects of agriculture for this year. Suffice it to say that a plentiful supply of rain has fallen, and that the ploughs are busily at work. I cannot report any improvement in the mode of farming. The flock-masters are in a state of great uneasiness in consequence of the penal clauses of the Scab Act passed last Session of Parliament. Dipping, however, has now been generally resorted to, and in consequence in some instances the flock-master has been induced to view his previous fears as being of a perfectly ephemeral character, and to see that with attention and dipping it is quite possible to exist under the Scab Act without rendering himself liable to its penal provisions.

J. GRIFFITH, Collector.

16. ROSS.

THE District is principally pastoral, being divided into large estates, and in most cases in the occupation of the owners. The entire area, with the exception of a few thousand acres, is private property. Generally speaking, it is good pastoral land, but in very few spots well adapted for agriculture. The lands around the Township of Ross are of a sandy, hungry nature, and require a great deal of moisture to produce an average crop. There are no improvements to note during the past year further than on one or two estates. Irrigation works have been extended.

The Agricultural Returns, on the whole, show an increase on last year. The season, however, was far from a good one. I have taken every care to furnish these Returns as accurate as possible.

W. E. WARNER, Collector of Agricultural and Live Stock Returns.

17. SPRING BAY.

THE number of Sheep have decreased about 10,000, as two persons alone have sent 6000 out of the District, and a third has 1500 less in my District than he had last year, having removed to the adjoining District, Oatlands.

S. MURPHY.

18. WESTBURY.

HEREWITH I have the honor to forward Agricultural Returns, with abstracts, &c. for year 1869-70 for this District. In doing so, causes of increase and decrease require some explanation. You will perceive under the head wheat less land in cultivation by 2273 acres than corresponding period last year. There was a failure in the wheat crop last year. Farmers turned their attention this year to the oat crop. 11,997 acres of wheat this year yield 181,387 bushels: 14,270 last year yielded only 172,282; oats, 6285 acres, this year yielding 116,349 bushels; last year, 3352 acres yielding 79,327 bushels.

In sheep, by referring to past Returns, an increase and decrease will be found every alternate year. Cattle, horses, and pigs, about the same number from year to year, the difference being slight.

Every year improvements are visible in the system of agriculture. Fallowing the land, ploughing, and harrowing seem to be performed with greater care and attention.

Worn-out lands are helped by artificial manures with good results. In ploughs in particular are visible great improvement. There is no irrigation except on a small scale. Drainage of land receives more attention than in any former year, with very satisfactory results.

MYLES MAHONEY, Collector of Agricultural Statistics.
