

Potato Mop-Top Virus

Mr JAENSCH question to MINISTER for PRIMARY INDUSTRIES and WATER

Tasmania is responding to the recent detection of potato mop-top virus, which was first detected in July this year. Constituents in my electorate, particularly potato growers, are keen to understand the amount of testing that has occurred ahead of the planting season, and as we move to managing potato mop-top virus, what support measures are being considered for Tasmanian potato growers?