Notices of Motion

- 29 Mrs Rylah to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes that Precision Agriculture plays a vital role in contributing to the growth of the Tasmanian agriculture sector through better technology, improved knowledge and irrigation infrastructure, increased yields and the achievement of greater efficiencies.
 - (2) Records this is the fifth year of the annual Precision Agriculture Expo, conducted by the Tasmanian Agricultural Productivity Group in collaboration with the Tasmanian Institute of Agriculture and partners and this event highlighted new technologies and advancements designed to improve efficiencies in agricultural systems.
 - (3) Acknowledges advancements of precision agriculture has seen technology, machinery, transportation and logistics play a larger role in the supply chain resulting in new job opportunities.
 - (4) Further notes by encouraging innovation and investing in the agriculture sector, the Hodgman Liberal Government underpins its bold AgriFood Plan that aims to grow the farm gate value of the State's agricultural industry to $10bn a year by 2050.
 - (5) Further notes the effective collaboration between private enterprise, primary producers, contractors and the Government will also help grow stronger and more resilient rural and regional communities.
 - (6) Recognises precision agriculture is changing the way the agricultural sector operates, resulting in increased job opportunities in technology, machinery and logistics and this Expo highlighted that through collaboration, education and innovation Tasmania can reach its full agricultural potential.
 - (7) Commends the Hodgman Liberal Government for supporting the delivery of this highly successful Expo with funding of $60,000 over four years through the Strategic Industry Partnership Program. (30 April 2019)
- 30 The Minister for Racing to move—That the House:—
- (1) Expresses its sincere condolences to the family and friends of Longford's Mick Burles, a renowned Tasmanian racehorse trainer.
 - (2) Recognises the contribution Mick Burles made as a respected member of the Tasmanian racing community.
 - (3) Notes the feats Mick Burles achieved with cult hero horse The Cleaner, a winner of 19 races and almost $1.4 million in prize money.
 - (4) Further notes that Mick Burles and The Cleaner made history in 2014 when they became the first ever Tasmanian horse and trainer combination to compete in a Cox Plate. (30 April 2019)
- 31 The Attorney-General to move—That the House:—

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (1) Notes the Hodgman Liberal Government is open to considering changes to section 194K of the Evidence Act 2001 (Tas) to ensure it appropriately protects the rights of all victims of sexual assault.
- (2) Further notes that, as is the case in any law reform, it is imperative that the right balance is struck between protecting all victims of sexual assault and the public interest in open justice.
- (3) Further notes the immense courage of rape and sexual assault survivors to speak about their experience, and the Government's willingness to consider reforms that facilitate those that wish to be identified, to do so more readily.
- (4) Recognises that some members of the community have expressed concerns that this provision does not currently strike the right balance, and therefore the Government looks forward to hearing the views of stakeholders and community members in response to the Government's recently released Discussion Paper. (30 April 2019)

32 The Minister for Environment to move—That the House:—

- (1) Congratulates the many staff and volunteers of the Orange-bellied Parrot program for their tireless work this breeding season that has resulted in 81 captive born fledglings and 44 captive adult breed birds being released in 2019.
- (2) Notes that this Orange-bellied Parrot program is benefiting significantly from the increased funding that the Hodgman Liberal Government has provided, which is allowing a number of new breeding initiatives to be trialled.
- (3) Further notes that the $2.5 million new purpose built captive breeding facility at Five Mile Beach, funded by the Hodgman Liberal Government, is nearing completion and has already increased captive breeding capacity by 50 per cent for the most recent season.
- (4) Further notes that the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to doing what it can to help save the Orange-bellied Parrot, and ensure that we have a wild population of this endangered bird continue to breed at Melaleuca, in the heart of the Tasmanian Wilderness World Heritage Area. (30 April 2019)

34 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that Tasmania's award winning wine industry injects more than $100 million into the State's economy and directly employs more than 2,000 full time equivalent positions, often in regional areas.
- (2) Further notes that the Hodgman Liberal Government is investing $600,000 to further develop wine export and visitor markets with Wine Tasmania using the funding to grow Tasmania's presence and reputation in the United Kingdom, USA, Hong Kong and domestic markets, with a secondary focus on broader Asia, specifically Japan and Singapore.
- (3) Further notes that Tasmania's wine grape harvest is in full swing with reports across the state that quality is excellent and the 2019 crop is on track to surpass the record 2018 yield.
- (4) Further notes that the Government is investing a further $250,000 to match funding from the Federal International Wine Tourism State Grants program.
- (5) Further notes that these and other initiatives will assist the Government in meeting its target of increasing the farm gate value of Tasmania's agricultural sector to $10 billion a year by 2050. (1 May 2019)

35 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that the 37th annual Agfest, Tasmania's premier agricultural and machinery field day event, will run from 2-4 May 2019.
- (2) Recognises that Agfest was first held at Symmons Plains in 1983 however had outgrown that site by 1986 where it was moved to its current location at Quercus Park, Carrick.
- (3) Acknowledges that Agfest is administered by Rural Youth Tasmania who are a non-profit organisation with members between the ages of 15 and 30.
- (4) Further notes that the Agfest Committee is a volunteer role comprised of approximately 60 Rural Youth members.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (5) Agfest continues to grow each year, with Agfest 2018 attracting over 60,000 patrons and 700 exhibitors injecting millions of dollars into our local economy annually.
- (6) Congratulates Agfest for offering to donate 50 per cent of transactions at 2019's event to the Rural Alive and Well program, aimed at assisting communities on mental health issues.
- (7) Further congratulates Agfest Chair Owen Woolley, State President Dale Hayers and thanks Rural Youth and its tireless band of volunteers for their hard work and dedication that has made Agfest the truly iconic, nationally recognised event it has become. (1 May 2019)
